

Have a new experience tour in South America

Price Starting From : $2185

15 Days/14 Nights

South America

Uruguay, Argentina, Brazil

3 Countries

5 Cities

Everyday

See the magnificent city of Buenos Aires in Argentina, stroll through the streets of Colonia and Montevideo, visit the beaches of Punta del Este in Uruguay, and end your trip in the breathtaking city of Rio de Janeiro in Brazil to experience South American culture. Enjoy your summer in South America! In the city of Buenos Aires, where passion abounds. This South American tour's incredible high point is a visit to Iguassu Falls, where you can see the falls from both the Brazilian and Argentinean perspectives! Enjoy the sight of rainbows formed in clouds, listen to the distinct roar of the water, and ride the ecological jungle train for breathtaking views as it winds through the rainforest. From the vibrant and remarkable cities to the breathtaking scenery, this trip to Brazil, Argentina, and Chile will leave you with vacation memories and amazing thoughts that you'll cherish for life. it's really the perfect vacation for you.

Overview

Inclusion

- At the airports listed, you will be greeted and helped by our Representative.
- Every transfer specified in the schedule in the vehicles that were informed.
- Three nights' lodging in Buenos Aires
- One night's lodging in Colonia
- One night's lodging in Montevideo
- Four nights' lodging in Punta del Este
- Five nights' lodging in Rio de Janeiro
- Every sightseeing tour with a guide is included in the itinerary.
- Tours (private or regular, depending on the schedule)
- guides in a language that the clients and the company decide on.
- Admission costs as listed on the schedule.
- meals based on the schedule

Exclusion

- Flights within and outside the country (to be quoted according to travel date)
- airport levies
- Visas for entry into the previous nations
- optional travel
- Advice on travel insurance
- Any other services not specifically listed above, any other meals not specifically listed above, or any other personal expenses like drinks, phone calls, laundry, camera costs, tips, etc.

Itinerary

Day1: Welcome to Buenos Aires

arrival in the city of Buenos Aires through international flight. Additionally to the variety of experiences and situations, it offers, it is now recognized as a lively, modern, and traditional city where European traditions exist in a harmonious fusion with Argentine realness. Assistance at the airport. Then Make your way to the hotel.

Day2: Exploring Buenos Aires

This guided city tour will cover the history, habits, and Argentine culture of the city that gave rise to the tango. The tour will start in the northern neighborhoods of Palermo and Recoleta, where you will see the typical sights—wide avenues, palaces, homes, and green spaces. The tour will proceed through the Centre, by the Teatro Colón and the Obelisco, a unique symbol of Argentina and Buenos Aires. The Government House, Metropolitan Cathedral, and Cabildo will all be visited, in addition to the historic Plaza de Mayo, where independence was declared in 1810. Next, the tour will head south to the smallest but most traditional neighborhood, San Telmo, and finally to La Boca, also referred to as "La Boca Republic." The excursion will comprise a stop at the Caminito passage, an open-air museum, and a photo opportunity in front of Boca Juniors Stadium, La Bombonera. The last neighborhood will be the newest, Puerto Madero.

Day3: Buenos Aires, Visit to a local “Estancia”

For the best examples of Argentine habits, Head to the province's center, Buenos Aires. Along with optional pursuits like horseback riding, regional games, and a typical Creole meal—the popular Argentine.

Day4: Travelling from Buenos Aires to Colonia (Uruguay)

We will travel by sea from Puerto Madero to the city of Colonia de Sacramento, where we will explore its historic center and see its oldest and most photographed streets, as well as museums, cafes, ice cream shops, and lovely souvenir shops that perfectly capture your unique Uruguayan identity.

Day5: Discovering Colonia and Punta del Este (Uruguay)

Our route to Punta del Este will take us there after breakfast. We will travel to Montevideo, the capital city, and its famous market, which is located in the centre of the historic district and offers a unique blend of gastronomy, music, and art. Afterwards, we will reach Punta del Este, which is the most upscale city in the area and widely regarded as one of America's major spas. It's the most glitzy spa in America, with lavish summer homes, tall apartment buildings overlooking the water, enormous yachts anchored in the harbour and opulent hotels and dining establishments. Make your way to the hotel. You have the remainder of the day to yourself.

Day6: Explore Montevideo and Punta Del Este

Punta del Este, known as one of the main spas in America, is a luxurious city with luxurious summer homes, tall apartment buildings, yachts, hotels, and restaurants. The tour takes you to visit Piriapolis, the first spa in Uruguay, and its hills, where you can learn about the work of Don Francisco Piria, a visionary man. You'll visit the Castle of Piria, the Pan de Azúcar Hill reserve, Rambla Costanera, Argentinian Hotel Spa de Mar, Commercial and Sports Port, San Antonio Hill, panoramic views, and optional aerial chair descents. The tour also includes a visit to Casapueblo, the Carlos Páez Vilaró Museum-Workshop. (Please note that entrance to Casapueblo is not included and may incur additional taxes per person).

Day7: A tour in Punta del Este

Free day to take advantage of Punta del Este's beaches, shop in its lovely center, and enjoy the excellent local food.

Day 8: Continue exploring Punta del Este

Free day to take advantage of Punta del Este's beaches, shop in its lovely center, and enjoy the excellent local food.

Day9: A day at punta del este beaches

Free day to enjoy the beaches.

Day10: A trip from Punta Del Este to Montevideo then moving to Río De Janeiro(Brazil)

Move on to the airport to get on a foreign flight that will take you to Rio de Janeiro. Then arrival and lodging transfer. And You have the remainder of the day to yourself.

Day11: A Day in Rio De Janeiro

This morning tour of Rio de Janeiro begins with a visit to Mount Corcovado, where the famous Christ the Redeemer statue is located. The tour then heads towards the Morro de Pan de Azucar, where two cable cars connect to the summit. The tour continues to the Maracanã Stadium and the Sambadrome, where the Samba musical rhythm is performed. The Metropolitan Cathedral of São Sebastião, a symbol of the metropolis, is also visited. The tour then continues to downtown Rio, where the local culture is explored through the Selaron stairs and Lapa arches. In the evening, an optional dinner at LASAI, OLYMPE, or OTEQUE restaurant is available. The tour offers a comprehensive view of Rio de Janeiro.

Day12: Continue discovering Rio de Janeiro

Rio offers a variety of beaches for visitors to enjoy. Copacabana, the most famous beach, is 4 km long and filled with colorful promenades. Ipanema is a favorite spot for surfers and divers, with nearby islands Palmas and Cagarras for underwater hunting and snorkeling. Arpoador, the 500-meter-long beach that separates Copacabana from Ipanema, is a popular spot for tourists and Cariocas to witness sunrises. Vermelha, located at the foot of Pan de Açúcar hill, is quiet and preferred by families with children and the elderly. Finally, Barra da Tijuca, the 18 km long longest beach in Rio, is a favorite among surfers for its green waters, windsurfing, kitesurfing, and coastal fishing. It also hosts spontaneous parties and is perfect for the youngest visitors.

Day13: Continue exploring Rio de Janeiro

Free day to enjoy the varied options of beaches that the city offers for us.

Day14: Rio de Janeiro beaches

Free day to take advantage of the many beaches the city has to offer.

Optional tour: A full-day trip to Ilha Grande and Angra dos Reis. Take a day trip to these well-known tropical islands and explore their enormous and enigmatic blue sea, which is home to shipwrecks, reefs, and a diverse array of marine life for those seeking an adventure they won't soon forget.

Day15: Fly back home from Rio de Janeiro

Transfer to the Galeão International Airport to take an international flight to the city of origin.