Muscat and Dubai

Every Day

Discover this special travel package to Oman and Dubai and see the beautiful and interesting places in both countries in the Middle East. With this tour, you can visit amazing places like Nizwa and Muscat in Oman, as well as famous sites in Dubai such as Burj Al Arab, Dubai Museum, and Jumeirah Mosque.

Burj Al Arab; Construction on the building began in 1994 and involved 2000 construction workers during its busiest construction period. The shape of the hotel is inspired by and designed to resemble the sail of a ship. More specifically, the billowing spinnaker sail of a J-class yacht.

Dubai Museum; The city's main historical museum charts Dubai's turbo-evolution from a fishing and pearling village to a global centre of commerce, finance, and tourism. It has an atmospheric setting in the compact Al Fahidi Fort, built around 1800 and considered Dubai's oldest remaining structure.

You will love exploring the amazing lands in the Middle East in two countries. Both the UAE and Oman are great for tourists. They have lots of fun things to do and places to stay. The UAE is thought to be more modern and famous than Oman.
