Itinerary

Day1-Discover Fayoum Oasis

Our tour leader picks you up from Cairo hotel and transfers you to Tunis Village, a picturesque hamlet across Lake Qarun, offering glimpses of Egyptian agricultural life, pottery studios, schools, and desert safari excursions.

A boat ride can be taken to reach Lake Qarun in Fayoum, which offers a serene experience with gentle waters.

Safari outfits can take you to Tunis Village's Magic Lake, a breathtaking natural beauty. The tour guide leads the group on an exhilarating off-road journey for 45 minutes into the desert. After the lake, go and capture beautiful images at Wadi Al Rayan, Egypt's largest natural oasis.

then we will transfer you to your fayoum hotel to relax and overnight

Day2 - fayoum-cairo

Following breakfast, you will be picked up by our tour guide to go to Wadi El Hitan, often known as the "Valley of the Whales," a captivating UNESCO World Heritage site that was originally a lake and is now home to coastal marine species that has existed for millions of years. It is possible to find preserved whale fossils here, providing evidence of the mammal's transition from a terrestrial to a marine animal. This gorgeous site is absolutely worth visiting, and we'll eat lunch at a nearby restaurant.

The Kom Aushim Museum, built in 1974, offers guided tours of Fayoum and houses relics from Prehistoric to Roman eras, as well as a Fayoum painting.

the following halt One of the largest Greco-Roman settlements in the Fayoum is Karanis (The Lord's Town), originally inhabited in the third century B.C. by mercenaries from the army of Ptolemy the Second. There are two temples in the city.

Following that, we'll return you to your Cairo hotel.
