Day 1: Friday - Embarkation - Aswan Nile Cruise Tours

You'll be greeted and helped by the tour leader of Cairo Top Tours before being taken to board the MS Tulip Nile Cruise, where you can eat your lunch and take in the amazing panorama of the Nile River. After your Egypt Easter tours from Australia in Aswan are over, you can continue your journey to the Temple of Philae, which gained notoriety during the Ptolemaic Dynasty as the epicenter of the worship of the goddess Isis. After your Aswan excursions are over, take a motorboat ride on the Nile. The High Dam of Aswan was completed in 1971, and the large lake beyond it is named after the former Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser. It was filled in 1979. Then you'll carry on enjoying your delicious meal while taking in an oriental Nubian show.

Stay overnight in Aswan.

Lunch and dinner are served.

Day 2: Saturday - Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples

On your Egypt Nile River Cruise, begin your day with a delicious breakfast. Then, sail to Kom Ombo, where you will be escorted by a knowledgeable tour guide to see the Temple of the Ptolemies, which was constructed in this town and is dedicated to the two significant gods Sobek and Haroeris. This is where the elephants were trained for the army. Following that, you will set sail for Edfu. Once there, you'll have lunch on the boat and be guided by your tour guide to Kom Ombo and Edfu, where you can visit the Edfu Temple to witness the scenes of Horus's battle with the evil god Seth and discover the fascinating story of Osiris and Seth. The Nile cruise boat will serve oriental dinner. Afterward, as we enjoy an Egyptian Galabeya Party, we will sail to Esna. In Esna for the night
