Day 1: Get to Cairo and register

We will arrange for a representative from Cairo Top Tours to meet you when you arrive at Cairo International Airport. You will be driven in a private, air-conditioned car to your Cairo hotel. Your tour guide will help you check in easily and go over the pick-up timings for your Cairo 3 Days Christmas Tour as well as any additional optional tours you might like to schedule while in Cairo.

Greetings Drink

Day 2: Memphis, Saqqara, and the Giza Pyramids

We will head to the plateau where you will have a full view of the entire Giza Pyramids area and this will be a great opportunity to enjoy an optional camel ride. After breakfast at the hotel, meet your certified tour guide and begin your tour to the Giza Pyramids, the area where the greatest pyramids in Egypt rising in glory, the Great Pyramid of King Cheops, his son Chephren, and the last one owned by the grandson known as Mycerinus or Menkaure.

Explore the Valley Temple and the Great Sphinx located within King Chephren's burial complex. The purpose of the mummification temple is to carry out the ceremonies associated with the opening of the mouth.

We plan to move the sphinx through a tunnel so that it is in close proximity to the massive statue of a man-headed lion that was carved out of the bedrock, serving as a guardian. You will also learn the significance of sphinxes in ancient Egypt from your tour guide.

Enjoy a delicious meal at one of the most exquisite restaurants with a view of the pyramids. Next, we'll continue our tour of Cairo by visiting the Saqqara Necropolis, which is home to the Step Pyramid of King Djoser, which was constructed by the brilliant architect Imhotep.

Additionally, we have access to King Teti's pyramid and one of the nobles' tombs in Saqqara. Kagemni, a relative of King Teti from the 6th dynasty, has a magnificent collection of animals and offerings scenes in excellent color preservation.

Your next stop will be the ancient city of Memphis, also known as Mit Rahina, which was formerly Egypt's capital. Here, you may explore the outdoor museum that features numerous antiquities and monuments of King Ramses II, as well as the city's famous alabaster sphinx.

Your first day's tours around Cairo will end with a return ride to your hotel.

Meals Included: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 3: Cairo Citadel, Egyptian Museum

We will begin the Cairo City Tour with a visit to the Egyptian Museum. After breakfast at the hotel, your personal tour guide will drive you to Tahrir Square and the Egyptian Museum, which has the largest collection of Egyptian antiquities in the world, for a two-hour tour. We will continue our Cairo excursions to the Citadel of Saladin, which was constructed in the twelfth century by the Muslim leader Saladin as a fortification of Medieval Cairo. Inside the citadel, we will see the Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, which is distinctive in that it resembles the Blue Mosque in Istanbul.

After your tours in Cairo are over, you will be taken to the airport or any other desired place in Cairo.
