Commence your adventure with a Giza Pyramids tour, where the grandeur of these ancient Egyptian structures, crafted over 4500 years ago, will leave you in awe. Witness the enigmatic Great Sphinx in Giza, believed to be constructed by King Chephren, and explore the Valley Temple, where the mummification process for the king took place.

Continue your Cairo exploration by visiting the ancient city of Memphis, now Mit Rahina, and explore the open-air museum featuring the second-largest alabaster sphinx and the colossal statue of the powerful King Ramses II from the New Kingdom.

The journey then leads to the Dahshur archaeological site, home to the Bent Pyramid and the Red Pyramid, both crafted for King Snefru, father of King Cheops. The Bent Pyramid's unique outer casing and the Red Pyramid's distinctive reddish limestone blocks make them standout wonders in Egyptian history.
