Day 2: Giza Pyramids Tours/ Saqqara Excursions/ Memphis City

Enjoy a delicious breakfast at the Cairo hotel before meeting a representative from Cairo Top Tours to visit the ancient Giza Necropolis, where you can see the Great Pyramid of King Cheops and the smaller second pyramid, demonstrating respect for his authority, built 4,500 years ago. The Mycerinus pyramid in Giza is the largest and smallest, with a lion-like Sphinx symbolizing strength and intelligence. An additional ticket is required for entry, and the tour price includes entry inside the pyramid.

Visit the Valley Temple, which was primarily constructed to carry out King Chephren's mummification as part of the funeral rites that assisted the king through his afterlife. Then, your guide will take you to Saqqara Necropolis, one of Egypt's richest archaeological sites and the location of the Step Pyramid of King Djoser, one of Egypt's 11 royal pyramids. The tour also includes admission to one of Saqqara's pyramids.

Have lunch at one of the neighborhood eateries in Giza, after which we will travel in a private vehicle to the historic city of Memphis, which served as Egypt's capital during the Old Kingdom. You will be astonished when you see the open-air museum with all the richness of the statues, especially those which were created for King Ramsess II.

After finishing your Giza day tour, we will take you back to spend the night at your hotel in Giza.
