Day 4: Fly to Aswan, Aswan Nile Cruise Tours

Once you've finished your daily buffet breakfast, our representative will meet you and escort you to Cairo International Airport for your flight to Aswan. Upon arrival at Aswan Airport, another representative will be waiting to transfer you to the cruise ship and assist you with the check-in process. You can leave your luggage onboard and begin your Aswan excursions.

Your first stop will be the remarkable Aswan High Dam, which is a monumental project initiated by President Nasser in the 20th century. This engineering marvel was constructed to prevent annual Nile floods and provide electricity to all corners of Egypt.

Next, you'll visit the Temple of Philae, which is a captivating Ptolemaic temple dedicated to the ancient Egyptian goddess of magic, Isis. Delve into the mystical ambiance as you explore this sacred site.

During your time in Aswan, you'll also have the opportunity to visit the granite quarries, where you can witness the Unfinished Obelisk. This colossal obelisk is believed to have been carved during the reign of Queen Hatshepsut. Marvel at its grandeur and craftsmanship.

After your excursions, you'll return to the cruise ship to enjoy your lunch and dinner onboard. You'll spend the night in Aswan, surrounded by the serene beauty of the Nile.

Day 6: Luxor East Bank Tours

After enjoying breakfast on board the cruise ship, we will reach Luxor, which is known as the largest open-air museum in the world, showing a wealth of ancient monuments. Luxor is located in Upper Egypt. This city once was the capital of Egypt during the Middle Kingdom and the New Kingdom, which was known as Thebes to the ancient Egyptians. On the eastern bank of the Nile lies the modern city of Luxor, where you'll find the magnificent Luxor Temple. At the northern end of the city, the sprawling Karnak Temple complex awaits, dating back approximately 4,055 years. The Karnak Temple is renowned for its grand hypostyle hall, featuring 134 colossal columns. As you explore the ruins, starting from the first pylon, you'll be transported back in time, walking along an avenue adorned with sphinxes on either side. One of the highlights of your visits will be the Temple of Luxor, which is an immense place of worship constructed by King Amenhotep III. After completing our Luxor east bank tours, we will return to the cruise ship to continue our journey.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 7: Luxor West Bank Tours

After a sumptuous breakfast, you will disembark from your Aswan to Luxor Nile cruise and begin your Luxor West Bank tours. The first stop will be the Valley of the Kings, which is the new kingdom necropolis where excavations are still ongoing. It is one of the most well-known locations in Luxor where the majority of the tombs were discovered intact and unaltered. We will stop at the enormous statues of Amenhotep III, which are known as the Colossi of Memnon before continuing our Luxor excursions at the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, which was created as a mortuary temple and features the divine birth story of the semi-god Queen Hatshepsut. We will transfer you to Luxor Airport to catch your flight back to Cairo. Your tour leader will transfer you to your hotel to spend the night there.
