Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival To Cairo, Egypt

When you arrive at Cairo International Airport, you'll be greeted by our representative and a private vehicle, which will transfer you to your hotel in Cairo.

Upon arrival at the hotel, you'll be served a welcome drink while our representative assists you with a smooth check-in process and reviews your 10-day Egypt Easter package with you.

You'll then spend the night at the hotel in Cairo.

Day 2: Pyramids And Cairo Trips

After breakfast at your hotel, your Egyptologist guide will pick you up to begin your Cairo Day Tours. You'll get to see some of the major sites in Egypt, including the Giza Pyramids, which were built as huge pyramid tombs for the Pharaohs of Egypt, who believed they would become gods in the underworld. You'll explore the area around the Great Sphinx of Giza, which has a unique shape symbolizing strength and wisdom. You'll also have the option to enjoy a camel ride and take photos to remember your trip to Cairo.

Next, you'll visit the Egyptian Museum in Cairo downtown, which exhibits a number of uncommon artifacts used by ancient Egyptians, along with large coffins, tremendous statues, and King Tutankhamun's golden set.

After having lunch at a local restaurant, you'll continue your Egypt day tours to Coptic Cairo, which comprises old churches like the Hanging Church of the Holy Virgin Mary, one of the oldest churches in Egypt. You'll also visit Abu Serga Church, an ancient church in Egypt dating back to the 4th century, and the biblical Jewish Synagogue of Ben Ezra, originally a Christian church.

After a long and exciting day of Cairo trips, you'll be transferred back to your hotel in Cairo for the night.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3: Alexandria Tour

After enjoying breakfast at your hotel, you'll meet up with your tour guide to start your day trip to Alexandria from Cairo. Alexandria is the second capital of Egypt and is home to the famous Citadel of Qaitbay, which dates back to the 15th century and was originally created as a fortress to defend Alexandria. The city was built by Alexander the Great in 331 B.C. who was a great ruler of Egypt.

During the tour, you'll visit the Roman Catacombs of Kom El-Shoqafa, which are believed to have been started in the 2nd century A.D. You'll also see Pompey's Pillar, which was built around 300 AD for the Roman emperor Diocletian, and Roman ruins at the site. Additionally, you'll visit the Alexandria Bibliotheca, an important library in Alexandria that serves as a cultural center.

After exploring these fascinating sites, you'll stop for lunch and then spend the night at your hotel in Alexandria.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4: Alamein World War II Cemetery and Military Museum tour

After having breakfast, we'll transfer you to El-Alamein to enjoy a tour of the Commonwealth Cemetery, which contains many cemeteries and memorials to commemorate the victims of the battle from different nationalities. There is also a church, a mosque, and a small museum, as well as the German exaltation and the Italian cemetery. You'll also visit the Military Museum, which consists of five halls, with the main lobby featuring murals that tell the stories of war and carved images of the leaders of the warring enemies.

You'll then visit the Italian, German, and Australian Cemeteries before being driven back to Cairo. El-Alamein is a city in the Matrouh governorate, located east of Marsa Matrouh, one of the famous Red Sea Attractions, and west of Alexandria. The Battle of Alamein, one of the most famous battles of the Second World War between the Allied and Axis States, in which the forces of the German African Legion were defeated, took place on their territory.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5: Fly To Luxor - Luxor East Bank Trips

After breakfast, you'll be driven to Cairo International Airport to catch your flight to Luxor (Thebes), which was the capital of Egypt during the New Kingdom and is considered the biggest open-air museum. Upon arrival, you'll start the tour of the East Bank of Luxor by exploring Luxor Temple, which was dedicated to the worship of the god "Amun" and his wife "Mut" and their son "Khonsu" in the form of the god Min, the fertility god.

You'll also explore the El Karnak Temple complex, which was built by King Amenhotep IV and was known as Ipet Isu, or the most select of places. At the end of the day, you'll be escorted back to your hotel in Luxor for check-in and overnight.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6: Luxor West Bank Trips

On the 6th day of your Luxor Day Tours, you'll start by visiting the Valley of the Kings, which has about 63 royal tombs where kings and pharaohs of the New Kingdom rest in peace. After breakfast, you'll then visit the Temple of Ramses III at Medinet Habu, which was built by Ramses II in the 13th century BC in the ancient Egyptian capital of Abydos as his house million years in which he worshiped and held religious rituals after his death. It was believed that this is where God Amun first appeared.

You'll end your tour by visiting the Colossal Statue of Amenhotep III, which is also known as the Colossi Memnon, a gigantic statue of the King rising about 18 meters high. After the tour, you'll be transferred back to your hotel in Luxor.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 7: Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples tour

After having breakfast and checking out of your hotel, you'll start your visit to the Temple of Edfu, also known as the Temple of Horus. This temple is one of the most beautiful and luxurious Egyptian temples ever built and was constructed in the 2nd century B.C. The temple is dedicated to the worship of the God Horus.

You'll then continue your tour to visit the Kom Ombo temple, which are located above a high hill overlooking the eastern bank of the Nile. The foundation of the temple dates back to the era of Ptolemy VI and was built to honor the crocodile god Sobek and one of the forms of Horus, which was worshipped in Kom Ombo and was one of the most important gods of ancient Egypt. After the tour, you'll be transferred to your hotel in Aswan for check-in and overnight.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 8: Aswan Attractions Trips

After having breakfast, you'll explore Aswan during your Aswan day tours. You'll start by visiting the magnificent High Dam of Aswan, which is located between Egypt and Sudan and is considered one of the achievements of the century.

After that, you'll visit the Unfinished Obelisk in Egypt, which was built in 1508–1458 BC by Queen Hatshepsut and was made from a single piece of stone. Then, you'll visit the Temple of Philae, which was built to honor the goddess Isis. The temple was built by Ptolemy II and completed by the Roman Emperors.

You'll spend the night in Aswan and continue your exploration of this beautiful city the next day.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 9: Abu Simbel Temples tour

After breakfast and checking out of your hotel, you'll visit the magnificent Abu Simbel Temples, which were built by Ramses II and represent the miracles of ancient Egyptians in astronomy, engineering, and architecture. These temples were cut into a rock cliff and are dedicated to Ramses II and his wife.

The two temples of Abu Simbel were hewn into the mountain by Ramses II. The Temple of Ramses II is dedicated to the four universal gods Ptah, Re-Her-Akhtey, Amun-Re, and to Ramses II himself. It is also called The Sun Temple of Ramses II. The smaller temple is built for his favorite wife, the Nubian Queen Nefertari.

After the tour, you'll be transferred to Aswan Airport to take your flight back to Cairo and overnight in the Cairo hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 10: Final Departure

You will be driven after having breakfast for your departure from Cairo International Airport. End of our Egypt travel during the Easter tour package.
