There are food vendors and restaurants in the vicinity of the Giza Plateau where you can enjoy traditional Egyptian cuisine.

After lunch, head to the ancient city of Memphis, which houses numerous statues, artifacts, and a colossal statue of Ramses II. This museum provides insight into the history of Memphis.

Day 3: Cairo to Sinai

Start your day by checking out of your hotel after the breakfast box in the morning. Make sure you have all your belongings packed and ready for the journey to Sinai.

Our first stop will be Wadi Al Fara. This hike stands out for its challenging rise and rapid descent. A 3-kilometer accessible off-road drive is available.

The next stop is the desert region of the Jabal Shayeb Al Banat mountain range in eastern Egypt. There are several deep canyons and wide slabs of volcanic rock on the mountain's sides. This mountain offers a variety of tourist activities, including camping, hiking paths, and rock climbing. then arrange your transportation to visit Wadi el Nogra.

Transport you to El Karm, your eco-camp.

Day 4: Sinai Day Treks

After sipping bedouin tea and getting ready for breakfast in camp, you'll be transported to Wadi Tala. Follow the direction in front of you to return to St. Catherine. Just in front of you, via a little hole in a stone retaining wall, the lower route joins Wadi Itlah. It is possible to observe clearly from this vantage point the thin water curtains that drop from the rock face after a shower, making it white and forming a V-shaped depression.

We then take you across this region of the high Sinai mountains to a Bedouin community and a sheik's tomb. It is a well-liked route since the roads that connect St. Catherine and here provide a diversity of mountain scenery. then take you back to your tent so you can relax and have lunch there.
