Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival to Cairo

Our tour leader will assist you with airport procedures and luggage collection upon your arrival in Cairo. Then, our comfortable vehicle will take you to either the Four Seasons or Nile Kempinski hotel for the night.

Day 2: Pyramids, Saqqara, Dahshour

Start your day with a delicious breakfast at your hotel, then head to the Necropolis of Giza. Here, you'll see the three pyramids of ancient kings - Cheops, Khafre, and Mikrenius, as well as the Great Sphinx, considered the most famous monument in the ancient world.

For more knowledge about ancient Egyptian history, visit Saqqara and the Step Pyramid of Djoser with your guide. You'll explore some of the most impressive tombs in Egypt, including the mastaba of Kagemni, one of the most significant tombs from ancient times.

Next, you'll visit Dashur, where you can see the two pyramids built by Pharaoh Sneferu. Witness the Red Pyramid, the first real pyramid in the world, and even have the opportunity to go inside it.

After a day of exploration, enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant before returning to your hotel. With breakfast and lunch included, you'll have the energy you need to make the most of your Egyptian adventure.

Day 3: the Egyptian Museum, NMEC Museum

Start your day with a delicious breakfast at your Cairo hotel, then head to the Egyptian Museum with a professional guide who will take you on a fascinating tour of the museum's impressive collection of Egyptian antiquities, including the golden treasures of the famous pharaoh Tutankhamen.

Next, your guide will take you to the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization, where you'll witness an incredible collection of 50,000 artifacts that illustrate Egyptian civilization from prehistoric times to the present day.

After a day of exploration, enjoy a delicious lunch before returning to your hotel. This tour includes both breakfast and lunch, ensuring that you have the energy you need to make the most of your Egyptian adventure.

Day 4: the Citadel, Old Cairo

After enjoying a delicious breakfast at your Cairo hotel, you'll be driven to the Saladin Citadel, a fortress built between 1176 and 1183 AD to defend Cairo from the Crusaders. The mosque of Muhammad Ali Pasha, a must-see attraction, is located here.

After lunch at a local restaurant, your tour will take you to some of Cairo's most famous churches, including The Hanging Church and Church of St. George the Martyr, both built into the walls of the ancient Fort of Babylon. You'll also visit the Church of Abu Serga (St. Sergius), where it is said the Holy Family took shelter in a cave. Don't miss the remains of Cairo's oldest structures, the Fort of Babylon.

End your day with a visit to the old market of Cairo (Khan El-Khalili) to test your bargaining skills. This popular tourist destination is a must-see for any traveler to Cairo. At the end of the day, you'll be driven back to your hotel . Breakfast and lunch are included on this tour

Day 5: Arrival to Alexandria

Our day of adventure in Alexandria begins with a delicious breakfast served in the comfort of your hotel room, followed by a comfortable ride in our air-conditioned vehicle to explore the city's awe-inspiring sites that were constructed during the reign of Alexander the Great.

We'll start our tour with a visit to the modern Alexandria Library, which was officially opened on October 16, 2002. The library boasts an impressive capacity of eight million books, with the main reading room spanning across eleven levels and the catacombs located deep beneath the building. You'll also get a chance to check out the nearby Roman Amphitheatre, which is one of the city's most iconic landmarks.

Next, we'll head to the Alexandria National Museum, which is home to an impressive collection of artifacts that tell the fascinating story of Alexandria. Recent discoveries from the sunken part of the city have been added to the museum's exhibits, making the collection even more intriguing.

Our next stop is the Citadel of Qaitbay, which is considered one of the most historically significant sites in the Mediterranean region. Originally constructed by the Mameluke Sultan Al-Ashraf Qaitbay in 1480 AD, this fortress has undergone several renovations over the years and now stands as an important landmark on the coastline.

After a delectable lunch at a local restaurant in AL-Morsi Abu EL-Abbas, we'll wrap up our tour and head back to your hotel, the Hilton Alexandria, where you can relax and unwind after a fulfilling day of sightseeing.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6: AL-Alamien, Return to Cairo

Start your day with a delicious breakfast before we embark on a comfortable, air-conditioned vehicle to explore the WWII remains and cemeteries of Al Alamein. This location played a crucial role in World War II and was the site of some of the most intense fighting during the conflict.

If you're interested in history, you won't want to miss the Military Museum in this town. With over 30,000 artifacts on display, including weapons, uniforms, and other items used by soldiers during the war, it's a fascinating glimpse into what life was like during this time. The museum also has a library with over 1,000 books about the war, providing a deeper understanding of the events that occurred.

After our visit to the Military Museum, we'll head back to Cairo, where you can reflect on the day's experiences and enjoy the rest of your stay in this vibrant city.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 7: Fly to Luxor, Nile Cruise

Start your day with a delicious breakfast at your hotel, then head to Cairo airport to catch your flight to Luxor. Upon arrival, our representative will be there to greet you and transfer you to the Sonesta St.George Nile cruise boat, where you'll check in to your cabin and enjoy an open-buffet lunch.

After lunch, get ready to explore the Luxor East Bank on a guided tour. One of the most remarkable sights you'll see is the Karnak Temple, a centuries-old monument that will leave you in awe.

Luxor is a beautiful destination with plenty of incredible temples to visit, and the Luxor Temple is a must-see. Situated overlooking the River Nile, it was originally built on the site of a smaller temple dedicated to the cult of God Amun.

Before dinner, enjoy a relaxing afternoon tea or cocktail hour aboard the Nile cruise ship, taking in the sights and sounds of Luxor. It's the perfect way to unwind after a busy day of exploring.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 8: Luxor West Bank

Wake up to a delightful breakfast on the Nile cruise boat before embarking on your Luxor West Bank Tours with your Egyptologist guide. Get ready to explore the Valley of the Kings, a narrow valley nestled between two mountains and filled with red rock. Here, you can explore the tombs of nearly 70 ancient pharaohs, including some of the most famous kings from the New Kingdom period.

But that's not all - your Luxor sightseeing tour continues to the Temple of El Deir El Bahari, built by the influential and powerful Queen Hatshepsut. The temple reflects her tumultuous relationship with her son-in-law, Tuthmosis III, as evidenced by the damage to several statues of her following her death. It's a fascinating experience to witness how history can be interpreted in different ways.

After touring the impressive Colossi of Memnon, which are statues of Amenhotep III, you'll return to your ship and head to the beautiful city of Edfu. Enjoy a delicious lunch and afternoon tea before dinner is served on the Nile cruise ship with the lively Galabeya party. Spend the night in Luxor, where you can relax and reflect on the day's experiences.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 9: Sail to Aswan

Start your day with a lovely breakfast on the Nile cruise boat as you travel from Luxor to Aswan. Enjoy the beautiful scenery along the Nile River while you eat.

Take a tour of the Temple of Edfu, which was built to honor the God Horus and to protect the king's position. Afterward, return to the cruise ship for a delicious lunch.

Next, visit the ancient temple of Kom Ombo, which was built by two gods associated with the Egyptian god Sobek and the Greek god Haroeris.

After dinner, return to the ship and continue your early morning sightseeing tour to Aswan.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 10: Aswan Sightseeing, travel to Hurghada

Begin your day with a unique perspective of Aswan from your Nile cruise ship before exploring the city's famous highlights.

Start your tour at the Temple of Philae, where the goddess Isis cult is centered, and the myth of Osiris took place.

Continue your exploration by visiting the Unfinished Obelisk in the granite quarries. This towering monument is thought to have been carved during the reign of Hatshepsut and is a fascinating sight.

Finish your Aswan sightseeing tour at the High Dam, one of the most important projects in modern Egyptian history. It was implemented by President Nasser in the 1950s to help protect the country from annual flooding and generate much-needed electric power.

After disembarking from your Nile cruise ship, you'll be transferred by private car to your hotel in Hurghada. After check-in, enjoy an open buffet lunch and spend the rest of the day at your leisure.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

From Day 11 to Day 14

Start your day with a delicious breakfast at your hotel in Hurghada. You'll have the whole day free to explore and enjoy all the attractions and tours that this beautiful city has to offer.

Whether you want to spend the day lounging on the beach, taking part in water sports, or exploring the local markets, there's something for everyone in Hurghada.

In the evening, return to your hotel for a delicious dinner before settling in for the night.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner
