Experience the charm of Alexandria like never before, as you're personally escorted by a knowledgeable guide through its extensive Roman ruins and Mediterranean-style atmosphere. With no time constraints, you're free to choose how long you want to spend at each location.

Founded by Alexander the Great in 332 B.C., Alexandria was once the capital of Greco-Roman Egypt. Next, your guide will take you to the citadel of Qaitbay, built in 1477 to defend the eastern flank of the city. This fort is located near Alexandria's famous lighthouse and adds to the Roman theme of the tour.

After indulging in a delicious lunch, you'll have the option to visit the renowned Alexandria Library (for an additional fee). The modern Norwegian-designed skyscraper is a mesmerizing contrast to the older structures seen throughout Egypt.
