Day 1: Aswan Sightseeing Trips

Your journey with Cairo Top Tours starts as their tour guide welcomes you at Aswan Airport or railway station. You'll then be transferred to Cairo for an Easter holiday, where you'll experience a luxurious stay on the 5-star Movenpick Royal Lily Nile Cruise.

During this tour, you'll have the opportunity to explore significant sites including the High Dam, a crucial water-saving and flood-protection structure for Egypt. The Temple of Philae, dedicated to Goddess Isis, will captivate you with its impressive architecture. Additionally, you'll marvel at the largest Unfinished Obelisk, a historical monument commissioned by Queen Hatshepsut, a notable female ruler of Egypt.

Following a delightful lunch, you can unwind while immersing in the picturesque Nile River views, enjoying afternoon tea, and indulging in a delectable dinner aboard the cruise ship. Your overnight stay in Aswan will be a memorable part of this experience.

Day 2: Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples tour

Start your day on the Nile Cruise with a tasty breakfast. Get ready for a fun and interesting day guided by a pro. You'll visit the cool Kom Ombo Temple, a really old Egyptian building that's super pretty. It was made back when Ptolemy VI was around, but they decorated it later, during Emperor Tiberius' time. This place is all about the God Sobek.

Next, you'll head to the Edfu Temple of Horus. And guess what? There's a delicious lunch waiting for you after that. There will be music, and shows, and you'll spend the night there too.

Day 3: Luxor East Bank Temples Tour

Following your morning meal, a delightful day of exploration awaits you on the Nile Cruise during the Easter tour in Egypt. You will head to the East Bank of Luxor, where a remarkable adventure begins.

Your first stop is the Grand Karnak Temple, which happens to be the largest temple in all of Egypt. As you step inside, the highlight is the Hypostyle hall, an awe-inspiring expanse filled with enormous pillars, resembling a sprawling forest. This magnificent hall was constructed during the reigns of two illustrious pharaohs from ancient times, Ramses II and Seti I.

Moving forward, your journey leads you to the Luxor Temple, another captivating destination on the East Bank. Here, you can once again immerse yourself in the beauty of the Hypostyle Hall and also marvel at the impressive statues of Ramses II. The day concludes with a delectable dinner and a comfortable overnight stay right on the cruise vessel.

Day 4: Final Departure - Luxor West Bank Tours

We're in for an exciting adventure as we head to the West Bank of the Nile in Luxor. Here lies the Valley of the Kings, a resting place for many Pharaohs from the New Kingdom era. This site holds a wealth of history waiting to be uncovered.

Our journey continues with a visit to the remarkable Temple of Hatshepsut at Deir El-Bahri. This Queen was a powerful figure during the New Kingdom period, and her temple reveals fascinating stories. Our knowledgeable guide will share insights into her impactful reforms and contributions.

As our memorable 4-day Movenpick Royal Lily MS Nile Cruise during Easter comes to an end, we'll depart from Luxor Airport. It's been an incredible journey filled with discoveries and history, leaving us with lasting memories of Egypt's wonders.
