Day 6: Luxor West Bank Tours

On the 6th day of your itinerary, you'll embark on an enriching exploration of Luxor's West Bank, immersing yourself in Egypt's Nile cruise tours. After a delicious breakfast, your first stop will be the renowned Valley of the Kings, housing an impressive collection of 63 royal tombs where the kings and pharaohs of the New Kingdom found their eternal rest.

Next, you'll visit the captivating Temple of Ramses III at Medinet Habu, a majestic structure constructed by Ramses II in the 13th century BC. This temple served as a sacred place for worship and religious rituals after the pharaoh's passing, with beliefs that it was the site of the first appearance of the deity Amun.

Concluding your 6th-day tour, you'll encounter the mighty Colossal Statue of Amenhotep III, famously known as the Colossi of Memnon. This awe-inspiring statue stands at an impressive height of approximately 18 meters, serving as a testament to the grandeur of the ancient king. Afterward, you'll be comfortably transferred back to your hotel in Luxor, concluding your day's adventures. Enjoy delightful meals throughout the day, including breakfast and lunch.

Day 7: Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples

Known as the Temple of Horus, the Edfu Temple is one of the most exquisite and lavish Egyptian temples ever constructed. It was constructed in the second century BC and is dedicated to the worship of the God Horus. Check out after breakfast to begin your visit to the Temple of Edfu. Then, continue your tour to the Kom Ombo Temples, which are located above a high hill, overlooking the eastern bank of the Nile. The temple, which was built to honor the crocodile god Sobek and one of the forms of God Horus that were worshipped in Kom Ombo, has its roots in the reign of Ptolemy VI. Transfer to your Aswan hotel to check in and spend the night.
