Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Memphis and Saqqara Sightseeing Tour

Your buffet breakfast will be served in the main restaurant at your hotel in Cairo, then you can start your tours. Cairo Top Tours certified tour guide will pick you up to explore the Great Pyramids in Giza, starting with the pyramid of King Cheops with its incredible height of 146.5 meters. You will see the Great Pyramid, which was King Khufu's tomb (c. 2589–2566 BC), and the tallest building in the world for 3,800 years.

You will visit the King Chephren Pyramid, which is the second tallest and largest of the three Ancient Egyptian Pyramids of Giza, and the small pyramid of Mycerinus. You will learn how the pyramids were built by ancient Egyptians.

You have the chance to enjoy a camel ride around the Giza Pyramids (an optional activity) to capture some breathtaking photos with the help of your Bedouin guide.

You will now descend to see a statue of the head of the king on a lion's body, representing a guardian of the pyramids behind it. Next is the Valley Temple of Chephren. The Valley of the Temples was built to mummify the mummies of kings, pharaohs, and nobles.

You will see the panoramic view of Giza's pyramids and take stunning photos. Enjoy lunch at a nearby restaurant. Visit the Step Pyramid Complex on the Saqqara plateau, where Old Kingdom nobility tombs were built. Finally, you will have the opportunity to go inside the pyramid of King Teti or King Unas.

Your last destination on this day is Memphis City. Memphis is a royal residence with the northern vizier's office, the Ptah High Priest's office, and renowned art schools, was home to the nation's central archives and Great Tribunal. We will transfer you back to your hotel.

Spend the night at Cairo Pyramids Hotel or a similar hotel in Cairo.

Day 3 : Tour to The Museum and Old Cairo

Your tour guide and personal driver will accompany you to visit one of the most important museums in the world during the Egyptian Museum tour. This tour will take you to the Egyptian Museum in Tahrir Square, one of Cairo's most impressive attractions. The Egyptian Museum is home to magnificent artifacts and antiquities, including the Golden Treasures of King Tut Ankh Amun. Your tour guide will lead you through the museum's main halls while making stops along the way.

You will visit the Saladin Citadel, which was built in the 12th dynasty for Cairo's protection, and the Mohamed Ali Basha Alabaster Mosque, which was a 17th-century structure belonging to an Albanian Egyptian king. Explore the stunning mosques, minarets, and domes of Islamic Cairo. You will be accompanied to Coptic Cairo by our Egyptologist guide. Coptic Cairo is a haven of calm and peace that reveals the history of this country. The Coptic Cairo is the center of Egypt's indigenous Christian community. On this site, archaeologists have discovered remnants of a small Nileside settlement dating back to the sixth century BC. Here, in the second century AD, the Romans built a fort known as Babylon-in-Egypt.

At the end of our Cairo Day Tours, we will move to Islamic Cairo to experience an old medieval bazaar when you visit Khan El Khalili.

After the end, Your driver will take you back to your hotel to spend another night in Cairo.
