Day 2 : Giza Pyramids & Sphinx and Sakkara tour

At Cairo International Airport, a representative from Cairo Top Tours will be waiting with a sign bearing your name. After that, they will drive you in a private air-conditioned vehicle to your hotel. When you arrive, they will assist you in quickly and easily checking in.

You can take some time to unwind on your first evening, or, if you prefer, you can go to Giz to see the Sound and Light Show. Breakfast at the hotel will mark the beginning of the first day, which will be followed by a meeting with your personal Egyptologist from Cairo Top Tours. They will lead you on the Giza tours, making it simple for you to learn about King Cheops' Great Pyramid and that of his sons, Chephren and Mycerinus. Should you decide to participate in the optional camel ride at the Giza Pyramids area, The famous Sphinx, with its recognizable man-headed lion figure, has been watching over the necropolis for more than 4500 years.

The Valley Temple of King Chephren is where you can go next if you want to learn more about the ancient Egyptian mummification process's greatest secrets. Each pyramid complex once included a valley temple, a mortuary temple, and a burial tomb (which was the actual pyramid). The only monument on the property that is largely unaltered is the King Khafre pyramid complex. Pre-burial rites for the pharaoh were performed in the valley temple.

After a delectable lunch, you will travel to Saqqara, one of Egypt's most important archaeological sites. At Saqqara, you can see the Step Pyramid Complex and the pyramid of King Djoser, the first structure ever constructed entirely out of six stone bases stacked on top of one another. Additionally, you will have the chance to visit the Kagemni tomb and the Pyramid of Teti, two of the Nobles' tombs.

Your day will be at the end by reaching your hotel.

Stay overnight at a hotel in Cairo.

Included meals: Breakfast and lunch

Day 3 : Cairo sightseeing tour

You will continue with a private tour guide after an open buffet breakfast at your Cairo hotel. The first stop is The Egyptian Museum, which houses the world's largest collection of Egyptian artifacts, including King Tutankhamen's undamaged royal treasures. The museum features royal mummies, statues, golden possessions, and beautiful accessories of the Egyptian Queens.

After visiting the Egyptian Museum, you'll explore Coptic Cairo, visiting the Hanging Church, Abu Serga church, and Ben Ezra Synagogue. The latter is where the Pharaoh's daughter found a basket containing baby Moses in the Nile, according to Jewish legend. The crypt where the holy family lived during persecution is also a must-see.

You will be accompanied by a private driver and guide to see the Citadel of Saladin after eating lunch at a nearby restaurant. This attraction stands out among all of our Cairo tours because it offers a breathtaking view of the ancient mosques, domes, and minarets that make up Islamic Cairo. In 1805, Mohamed Ali built the mosque, which was inspired by Turkish architecture.

You will be transferred to your Islamic Cairo trips where you can explore the walls, gates, and old streets of Fatimid Cairo. Additionally, you will have a one-of-a-kind shopping experience in the Khan El Khalili Bazaar in Cairo.

You have the option to take a tour in the evening and have dinner on a Nile cruise in Cairo.

this obelisk during the reign of Queen Hatshepsut. In order to learn more about the Isis and Osiris myth, the Temple of Philae will also be visited.

This temple in Egypt was converted into a Coptic church during the Roman era. Following that, guests will be returned to the Nile Cruise, from which they will depart for Kom Ombo. Visitors can savor their buffet lunch during the sailing. Prior to embarking on a ship for Edfu, travelers will first visit the Temple of Kom Ombo upon arrival in Kom Ombo. Visitors will delight in afternoon tea and the stunning surroundings along the way. A fantastic dinner prepared onboard will follow the captain's welcome cocktail, which will be served in semi-casual attire. Discotheque music will be played as entertainment following dinner.

The Amenhotep III statue is still a magnificent work of art even though the temple has been completely destroyed. The temple of Queen Hatshepsut, also known as El Deir El Bahari, should be the last stop.

Continue your East Bank tour of Luxor by visiting the temple of Luxor as well as the Karnak temple complex, which is regarded as the biggest ancient religious site on earth.
