Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive Cairo, Optional Sound and Light Show in Giza Pyramids

Upon your arrival at Cairo International Airport, our representative will be there to greet you and provide comfortable transportation to your hotel in a private air-conditioned vehicle. Once you've settled in, we'll review your Cairo and Red Sea short vacation itinerary together to ensure all Egypt day tours align with your preferences and schedule.

Additionally, there's an optional sound and light show at the Giza Pyramids, offering an informative experience that delves into Egypt's history. Attending this show can provide valuable background knowledge before embarking on your tour of the Giza Pyramids the following day.

Welcome Drink

Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Saqqara, Memphis

After your first buffet breakfast at the hotel, your certified tour guide will meet you to start your private tours in Cairo, beginning with the Giza Pyramids area. The tour will provide fascinating insights into ancient Egyptian history, and your knowledgeable guide will be there to answer all your questions while you stand close to the Great Pyramid of King Cheops. This impressive structure, built during the Old Kingdom's fourth dynasty, was constructed by one of Egypt's greatest kings.

As part of the experience, you have the option to take a camel ride in the Giza Pyramids area, allowing you to marvel at the glory of this historic land, once ruled by pharaohs.

Next, you'll visit the Valley Temple of King Chephren, where the royal corpse was mummified for the afterlife. You'll also see the magnificent Sphinx, a symbol of power and intelligence, portrayed as a man-headed lion.

Moving on, you'll explore the Saqqara Necropolis, which predates the Giza Necropolis by 200 years. Here, you'll find the Step Pyramid complex of King Djoser from the 3rd dynasty and the Pyramid of King Teti, who ruled during the 6th dynasty before the beginning of the 1st intermediate period. Inside one of the tombs belonging to the nobles, you'll encounter fine ancient Egyptian art, including the tomb of Kagemni, the vizier of Justice and son-in-law of King Teti.

The tour will then take you to Mit Rahina, the site of the most ancient capital of Egypt, now an open-air museum housing fascinating artifacts from various epochs of ancient Egyptian history, spanning the Old Kingdom, Middle Kingdom, and the New Kingdom. Notable attractions include the alabaster sphinx of Memphis, the second-largest among all the sphinxes in Egypt, and the gigantic statue of Ramses II, a prominent king from the 18th dynasty.

You'll enjoy lunch during the journey back to the hotel, where you'll spend the night in Cairo.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3: Islamic Cairo, Coptic Cairo, Egyptian Museum

After breakfast, you'll embark on a captivating Cairo city tour, starting with a visit to the historic Islamic Cairo and the impressive Saladin Citadel. This medieval fortress, built by Sultan Saladin in the 12th century, served to protect Cairo from potential threats.

Inside the Citadel, you'll find the stunning Alabaster Mosque, a masterpiece associated with Mohamed Ali. On clear days, this spot offers an excellent view of the Giza Pyramids.

Next, you'll explore Old Cairo on a Coptic tour, where you'll encounter some of the earliest Christian churches in Christian history. This area holds significance as it is believed to be a place where the Holy family sought refuge for about 3-4 months during their journey to escape King Herod. Among the highlights are the Church of Abu Serga, built over the crypt where they stayed, and the Hanging Church, situated above two towers of the ancient Roman fortress of Babylon. You'll also have the opportunity to visit the Synagogue of Ben Ezra, one of the oldest Jewish synagogues in the Middle East.

Following a delightful gourmet lunch, you'll head to the vibrant Khan El Khalili market in the Al Hussein area of Cairo downtown. This area, named after the grandson of the Prophet of Islam, Mohamed (PBUH), is adorned with old mosques from the 9th century and numerous mausoleums of Prophet Mohamed's companions and family members. Enjoy a delightful Cairo walking tour through the charming alleys and savor a tasty tea-mint drink before returning to your hotel for the night.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 4: Red Sea El Ain Sokhna Overnight from Cairo

After checking out from the hotel, we will be heading to Ain Sokhna on the Red Sea, which is just a 90-minute drive away. Upon arrival at the resort, you can unwind and enjoy a relaxing time at the beach or take a refreshing swim in the pool. A delectable buffet lunch will be served starting at 3:00 PM, followed by dinner before the night show.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 5: Porto Sokhna Cabla Car Tour Up the Mountain

After having breakfast, check out from your hotel, and the adventure begins immediately. We will drive to the renowned Porto Sokhna resort, which takes approximately 30 minutes. At the resort, you'll experience the Cable Car (Teleferik) ride up Galala Mountain, where you can savor a delightful seafood lunch at an upscale restaurant, offering stunning views of the Red Sea and the mountains. Take some time to explore the resort's mall and capture beautiful photos by the seaside. Later, your vehicle will take you back to Cairo. Simply inform the driver of your preferred drop-off location in Cairo, concluding your exciting Cairo and Red Sea short vacation in Egypt.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch
