Itinerary

Day 1- Arrival to Cairo- Siwa oasis

Arriving at Cairo airport, you'll be escorted to a modern, air-conditioned vehicle. During the journey to Siwa Oasis, you'll have a relaxing coffee break. Once at the oasis, our knowledgeable tour guide will help you check in at the hotel, giving you time to relax and enjoy your overnight stay.

Day 2- Discover siwa oasis

After breakfast at the hotel, start the day by visiting the Alexander the Great Temple, also known as the Temple of the Oracle, where Alexander the Great consulted the Siwan Oracle.

Next, head to the nearby salt lake and then proceed to Cleopatra's bath, the spring of the sun, where Cleopatra is said to have swum.

Continue to the Amun temple, also known as the Umm Ubaydah temple, constructed by Pharaoh Nectanebo of the 30th Dynasty.

Visit Gebel Al Mawta, and enjoy a delicious Siwan dish at Abdo Restaurant.

Experience the unique floating sensation while swimming in the salt lake.

Explore the Great Sand Sea with a Jeep 4x4 and take a dip in the hot and cold springs.

As evening approaches, savor authentic Bedouin tea and have a barbecue meal. You can choose to stay in a tent or opt for one of the excellent eco-lodges in Siwa for the night.

Day 3- Siwa oasis tours

Enjoy breakfast at the Camp. Visit the Shali Fort and have some free time for shopping in Siwa Oasis.

Drive to the Conical Mountain of the Dead, located just over a kilometer north of Shali. Explore four tombs carved into the mountainside, dating back to the Ptolemaic, Roman, and 26th Dynasty periods.

Next, head to Fatnas Lake. You can choose to travel on foot or by bicycle to the charming little island of Fatnas, situated in Birket Siwa. Take in the beautiful sunset views over the lake with Gebel Bayda and Hamra providing a picturesque backdrop to the west. Wander through the garden and discover various trees, including banana, date, and olive trees.

Finally, a vehicle will take you back to your lodging for the night.

Day 4 :Siwa to Cairo

After breakfast at the Camp, take extra time to explore Siwa and indulge in its renowned offerings. Sample the world-famous dates, olives, jellies, and syrups that the region is known for. Discover the tranquil herbs, along with famous teas, unique lamps, and various goods crafted from the salt sourced from Siwa's salt lakes.

Later, you will be transported from Siwa to your accommodation in Cairo to conclude your memorable journey.

Day 5- tour to Giza pyramids and Egyptian museum

A professional tour guide will pick you up from your Cairo hotel in a private, modern car for the Giza Pyramids tour. Start by exploring the Great Pyramid of King Cheops and take a 20-minute camel ride to learn about Egypt's history.

Next, visit the Valley Temple, also known as the "Mummification Temple," and enjoy a panoramic view of all the pyramids.

Afterward, you'll have a free lunch at a nearby restaurant, followed by a tutorial on how to capture great photos and choose the best shooting locations for memorable moments.

Depart from the Giza Pyramids and head to Cairo City Center, where you'll visit the impressive Egyptian Museum, home to countless authentic sculptures and King Tutankhamun's treasures.

At the end of the day, you'll be dropped off at your hotel. Please note that drinks are not included with the lunch.

Day 6- Departure

After breakfast at your hotel, your tour guide will meet you and provide transportation to Cairo Airport for your departure flight.
