Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Sphinx, and the Egyptian Museum

Your Cairo day tour will start when our tour guide picks you up from your hotel after breakfast. The Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus Pyramids will be your first stops. The Tour will also stop at the Valley Temple, which is a portion of the Pyramids of Chephren, before arriving at the Great Sphinx.

To examine some of the most priceless works of art from the Paranoid era, we'll go to the Egyptian Museum. Along with treasures on display from the museum's magnificent 5000-year-old collection, items that have been preserved in Tutankhamen's tomb for more than 3,500 years are also on view.

Day 3: Memphis and Sakkara Tour

Our tour guide will pick you up from your hotel after breakfast, and our first destination will be Sakkara, an incredibly significant archaeological site in Egypt. Sakkara served as the necropolis for Memphis, the ancient capital of Egypt, and it held the tombs of pharaohs, their families, and their courtiers. The site is vast, offering numerous fascinating attractions.

Our tour will commence with the Step Pyramid of Zoser, the oldest pyramid in Egypt. Constructed in the 27th century BC, this architectural wonder showcases remarkable engineering skills.

Next on our Egypt tour Packages from the USA itinerary is the Pyramid of Teti, which was built for Pharaoh Teti of the Sixth Dynasty. Though smaller in scale compared to the Step Pyramid, it remains an impressive structure. Additionally, we will explore the renowned tomb of Queen Nefertari, an exquisite burial site situated in the Valley of the Queens.

Following these visits, we will proceed to the Red Pyramid, the largest among the three major pyramids at Sakkara. Its awe-inspiring red limestone construction is a sight to behold. Finally, we will conclude our tour by visiting the Pyramids of Unas and Userkaf, the final major pyramids at Sakkara. These sites provide just a glimpse of the rich offerings Sakkara presents. There are countless more tombs and pyramids awaiting exploration, and we hope you will return to experience them all!

Day 4: Old Cairo Tour

The Salah El Din Citadel, which Salah El Din built in 1183 AD to defend Cairo from the Crusader army on the Moqattam hills, will be the first destination you go to. Our tour guide will pick you up from your hotel after breakfast to begin our Egypt-day tour. After that, go to the Mohamed Ali Alabaster Mosque, which was built for Egypt's last monarch, Mohamed Ali.

Then, we'll ride across the city in a horse-drawn carriage. This is a fantastic opportunity to experience the city's sights and sounds and get a sense of Cairo's pace of life. We'll go on a walking tour after that. This is an excellent way to take your time and thoroughly enjoy your exploration of the city.

Day 5: Cairo by Night

After breakfast, we will have a tranquil felucca trip down the River Nile as part of the Egypt Nile Cruise, where you may see the lovely view of Cairo at night, the warm sun, or the sunset, as you'd like. Following that, you can start a shopping Tour in Cairo.

You can pause to capture the Nile on camera. Following that, we'll go shopping in Khan el-Khalili and visit El-Azhar and El-Hussien Mosques. returning to the Cairo hotel to spend the night.

Day 6: Cairo to Alexandria Trip

Following breakfast, our tour guide will pick up you from your hotel as we embark on an exciting Alexandria day tour. This comprehensive tour of Cairo allows you to explore the numerous attractions that this vibrant city has to offer.

Our first stop will be the renowned Library of Alexandria, a remarkable structure constructed in the 3rd century BC. Once hailed as the largest library in the world, it is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site, holding immense historical and cultural significance.

Afterward, we will visit the Citadel of Qaitbay, an exceptionally well-preserved fortress dating back to the 15th century. From the citadel, you will be treated to breathtaking panoramic views of the city and the mesmerizing Mediterranean Sea.

Our next destination is El Montaza Palace, a stunning palace built in 1892 as a summer retreat for the Khedive of Egypt. With its enchanting gardens, fountains, and picturesque beach, it offers a delightful respite.

Continuing our tour, we will explore the Catacombs of Kom el-Shoqafa, ancient catacombs that date back to the 2nd century AD. These catacombs are a must-visit for history enthusiasts, providing a captivating glimpse into the past.

Lastly, we will conclude our tour with a visit to Pompey's Pillar, an iconic Roman column that stands as one of the tallest in Egypt. This architectural marvel serves as a symbol of Alexandria's rich Roman heritage.

Your tour from Cairo to Alexandria promises an unforgettable experience as you immerse yourself in the grandeur of Egypt's most famous sights and delve into the fascinating history of this remarkable city.

Day 7: Fly to Luxor

Following breakfast, our tour guide will pick you up from your accommodation and take you to the Cairo airport to start your new trip. We will take a plane to the ancient city of Luxor, where King Tutankhamun is interred in a spectacular tomb. Our tour guide will welcome you when we arrive in Luxor City and take you to your hotel, the Steigenberger Nile Palace or similar, where you can rest up for your first night in Luxor.

Day 8: Luxor hot air balloon ride
