Cairo's overnight stay

Day 2: Cairo to Bahariya Oasis Trip

Your tour leader will pick you up from your hotel in the morning after breakfast, and you'll embark on an Egypt day tour to the El Bahariya Oasis with a modern and air-conditioned car, which typically takes around four hours from Cairo. Upon arrival, your first stop will be the captivating Bawiti Museum, where you can explore intriguing native artifacts. Afterward, you'll have the opportunity to delve into the remarkable tomb of Benantui, which dates back to the 26th dynasty and boasts a unique and awe-inspiring design.

During your Egypt desert safari tour, the beautifully restored Amasis chapels are a definite highlight. Visitors are sure to be impressed by the meticulous restoration work that has been carried out on these ancient structures.

A drive to the English house in Egypt will follow, where you can unwind and indulge in the therapeutic hot springs. As the day draws to a close, you'll have the chance to witness a breathtaking sunset over the salt lake.

Finally, you'll settle in for a night of camping, immersing yourself in the tranquil desert atmosphere and creating unforgettable memories.

Day 3: White Desert - Black and Crystal Mountains

Our tour guide will transport you to the breathtaking White Desert after breakfast. Our first stop along the way is a visit to Crystal Mountain. The origin of this crystal mountain is interesting. The hill was opened by chance during work on the road from Farafra to Bahariya Oasis and was partly destroyed.

Then, we will visit The Black Mountain, which is one of the most important natural tourist attractions in Egypt and the world. It is formed by mountains of volcanic rocks scattered like an archipelago of islands.

Spend the night camping in the White Desert.

Day 4: Farafra Oasis

After breakfast, our tour guide will accompany you on a tour to the Farafra Oasis to see the art gallery, the hot spring, and the historic oasis. Continue your journey to Dakhla Oasis after lunch.

Along the way, we will make pit stops in the charming settlements of El Qasr, Deir El Hagar, and the Roman cemetery at Mozawaka. After that, we continue on to the painted rock in the golden desert to view the camel rock.

Night camping spent.

Day 5: Back to Cairo

After breakfast, our tour guide will transport you back to Bahariya Oasis in preparation to travel back to your hotel in Cairo.

Overnight in Cairo

Day 6: Cairo day tour

To commence your Cairo day tours, your designated tour guide will pick you up from your hotel after breakfast.

The initial destination on the itinerary will be the Giza Pyramids. These ancient structures, built over 4,500 years ago, are a marvel of engineering and astound with their intricate and advanced design, especially considering the limited building techniques available during that era.

Following the visit to the pyramids, a delicious lunch will be served at a nearby restaurant. Once refreshed, the tour will continue to Coptic Cairo, where you will explore the historical and religious sites. The highlight is the Amr Ibn Al-Aas Mosque, which holds the distinction of being the first mosque built in Egypt or Africa and the fourth mosque established in the Islamic world. Additionally, you will have the opportunity to visit the Coptic Museum, the Church of the Virgin Mary, the Hanging Church, and other significant ancient Egyptian landmarks, which collectively constitute a remarkable religious destination.

Finally, you will be transported back to your Cairo hotel, concluding the day tour filled with awe-inspiring historical and cultural experiences.

Day 7: Time of Departure

After breakfast, our tour guide will transport you back to the Cairo International Airport, which marks the end of your Egypt tour.
