Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive at Cairo

Our tour guide will meet you at the Cairo airport and bring you in an air-conditioned car to your Cairo hotel where you will check in.

Then we'll drive you to the Giza Pyramids, where you can visit the Great Pyramids of Khufu, Khafra, and Mankaura, as well as enjoy a camel ride to explore the amazing Giza Plateau.

We'll go to The Papyrus Institute to learn more about how papyrus is made. We'll be able to make our own scrolls utilizing this old technique after learning about it.

After that, it'll be time for lunch at a local eatery near Cairo's center. After a brief break, we'll see Cairo's ancient neighborhoods and marvel at its spectacular architecture, including Coptic Cairo, Islamic Cairo, and Al-Azhar, before completing our day tour at Khan Khalili.

Finally, we'll bring you back and put you up for the night.

Day 2: Fly to Luxor & Tour in Luxor

After breakfast, our tour guide will get you up from your hotel, assist with check-out, and take you to Cairo International Airport, where your flight to Luxor will depart. When you arrive in Luxor, your tour guide will take you to your hotel to recuperate before our first destination.

The Luxor Museum is great fun. They are a meticulously curated collection of artifacts from the Necropolis and Theban temples. The exhibit includes a cow-goddess head and other valuables from Tutankhamun's tomb.

The Mummification Museum is the ideal site to learn about the most enigmatic pharaohs. There are many mummified creatures as well as human and animal mummies there, so you may learn a lot about the procedure. Furthermore, the museum displays all of the instruments and equipment used in mummification, so you can better comprehend the process.

We'll stop for lunch at a neighboring restaurant before returning you to your Luxor hotel for the evening.

Meals: breakfast & lunch.

Day 3: Luxor East bank tour

Following your breakfast, our tour guide will pick you up from your hotel and take you to your destination. The Valley of the monarchs, an architectural masterpiece that functioned as a burial site, is home to countless monarchs' graves. The most well-known tombs are those of King Tutmosis I, King Tutmosis III, Tut-Ankh-Amon, King Ramses VI, King Mrenptah, and Amonhotep II.

then continue to observe Queen Hatshepsut, the daughter of Thutmosis I and the only female pharaoh to reign ancient Egypt, built the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, also known as El Dir El Bahari. During the 18th Dynasty (about 1490-1469 B.C.), she governed Egypt for around 20 years, during which time the temple was built.

The Colossi of Memnon, the remnants of Amenhotep III's funeral temple, will be our next stop. After that, we'll have lunch at a local restaurant before dropping you off at your hotel for the evening.

Meals: breakfast & lunch.

Day 4: Edfu and Kom Ombo temple

The temple of Horus is Edfu's most important building and one of Egypt's most beautiful and well-preserved Temples.

Check out of your hotel after breakfast, and our tour guide will pick you up to take you there. then continue to observe The Kom Ombo Pylon used to have two entrances, but the left side has completely gone, leaving just the center pillar and the lower sections of the right wing intact. As you approach, you may discover a relief of the Roman Emperor Domitian wearing the crowns of Upper Egypt, the gods Sobek, Hathor, and Khons, 52-line hieroglyphic inscription, and more on the front wall to the right.

Following that, we'll have lunch at a nearby restaurant before taking you to your Aswan hotel for the evening.

Meals: breakfast & lunch.

Day 5: Aswan tour

You will be picked up at your hotel or by our tour guide, the first stop on your Aswan day tour is the High Dam of Aswan, a 1960s engineering marvel from which you can see over Lake Nasser to the Kalabsha temple in the south and the enormous power plant in the north.

An Abu Simbel temples (optional tour) is a 3-hour trek from Aswan to the south in an air-conditioned vehicle. Because of their exceptional construction, the two temples of Abu Simbel are regarded to symbolize the apex of ancient Egypt. They represent the majesty and grandeur of the impending Kingdom. The Egyptian government and UNESCO agreed to collaborate to protect these sites from flooding. Ptah, Re-Her-Akhtey, Amun-Re, and Ramesses II were all honored at their own temples. The massive Abu Simbel temple is also known as Ramses II's Sun Temple.

The Temple of Queen Nefertari, also known as the Temple of Hathor since she was the Sun God's wife, symbolically unites Ramses II, Hathor, and the Sun God. Spend around three hours there before departing for Aswan. Return you to your hotel, where you will eat lunch and spend the night.

Meals: breakfast & lunch.

Day 6: Philae Temple and Fly to Cairo

Check out of your hotel after breakfast, and our tour guide will drive you up to visit The third and largest of the famed Aswan landmarks will be seen last.

The Philae Temple was carefully transferred to its current location (approximately 500 meters from the original site) as the surrounding Nile levels increased due to the construction of the High Dam. After arriving by speedboat on the island, your tour guide will offer you a walking tour of the temple, followed by some free time to do your solo research. The Philae Temple, which honors the goddess Isis, is located on a beautiful island in the river that has been painstakingly restored to its original configuration.

After your trip, you will be driven off at Aswan airport to catch your flight to Cairo. After your arrival, you will be taken to your Cairo hotel, where you will spend the night.
