It is home to a sizable collection of antiquities from ancient Egypt, spanning the classical and prehistoric eras. This historical treasure trove offers a singular and engrossing look into the cultural legacy of one of the oldest civilizations on Earth.

One of the earliest medieval military strongholds, the Saladin Citadel is a prominent historical site in Islamic Cairo. It is a well-liked tourist destination and a useful source of knowledge about Islamic history.

You'll also be visiting some of Cairo's most prestigious Islamic and Coptic areas.

Then, at the end of the day, you will be going back to your hotel and staying overnight.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 4: Fly to Luxor.

On day four, you'll visit Luxor, a city rich in history and culture. After visiting the Karnak Temple, you'll fly back to your original destination. The Luxor Temple, built over 2,134 years, was aligned with the Karnak Temple for a significant religious ceremony.

then you will be taken to your hotel to have an overnight.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 5: Luxor Tour

Luxor Day Tour two starts with a breakfast, exploring the eastern valley of the Kings and the western valley, which features twenty unfinished tombs. The Hatshepsut temple, a three-level structure with Osiris statues, is a must-see. The Memnon, a treasured Egyptian art masterpiece, is conserved for future generations as it is the only remaining remains of King Amenhotep III's burial temple.

You will be taken back to your hotel for the night.

Day meals: breakfast, lunch.

Day 6: Travel to Hurghada

On day six, you will be taken in the morning after you are done with your breakfast, and after setting up your luggage, you will make your check-out and travel by air-conditioned car to Hurghada.

You'll check in at your hotel and get a good night's sleep.

Day meals: all-inclusive

Day 7: Hurghada Day Tour.

On the seventh day, you're free to visit any destination you want in Hurghada or just relax at your hotel and enjoy the view of the sea.

Day meals: all-inclusive.
