Day 2 : Full day tour of the Pyramids & Sphinx

Have a delicious breakfast at the Cairo hotel before starting your amazing Cairo Day Tours.

When it is time for you to join your tour guide for some sightseeing on the Giza Plateau, he will come pick you up. He will explain the pyramids and the rationale behind their creation as well as potential techniques employed to achieve these architectural wonders.

You will be able to stroll around the base of King Cheops' Great Pyramid and even ascend a short set of steps.

Standing above the pyramids, our tour guide will help you take pictures. Following your return to your vehicle, your personal driver will take you on an amazing tour of the Great Sphinx, Mycerinus, and Chephren pyramids. The Valley Temple of King Chephren, which is situated across from the magnificent Sphinx statue, will be your final stop.

You have the chance to view these amazing monuments while riding a camel or on a horse as an extra activity.

You'll go to Sagqara, one of the most historically significant ancient Egyptian archaeological sites, after your tour of Giza. You will see the King Zoser's step pyramid complex and learn about the development of the ancient Egyptian royal tomb when you arrive. You may take an excursion to see King Teti's pyramid's interior while exploring Saqqara's eleven royal pyramids. We will take you into one of the aristocrats' tombs before we depart from Saqqara. These tombs date back 4,000 years, and the inscriptions and paintings on the walls and passageways offer a peek into the everyday lives of the ancient Egyptians.

You can carry on your Memphis tour after enjoying a delectable lunch at a local restaurant. Once you've reached the ancient city, you can take in the striking sculptures on display at the outdoor museum, which includes the alabaster Sphinx statue in the world (after the one in Giza), the alabaster Sphinx, and the enormous statue of Ramses II.

You will ultimately be taken back to your accommodation, which is close to Cairo's pyramids.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 3 : Cairo Sightseeing Tour including the Egyptian museum

After enjoying a delicious breakfast at your Cairo hotel, get ready for your exclusive tour. Your licensed tour guide will then greet you and take you to the Egyptian Museum. This museum has an amazing collection of statues and relics from ancient Egypt, including royal mummies, coffins, and gems from King Tutankhamen's royal treasure.

Our guide will go with you to tour the Citadel of Saladin, which houses the Alabaster Mosque built by Mohamed Ali Basha, the man who founded modern Egypt, after you've enjoyed a delicious lunch at a fine dining establishment. This will give you the chance to experience a glamorous side to this chapter of Egyptian history before you take in a breath-taking sweeping vista of Islamic Cairo, which is home to several mosques, gorgeous minarets, and historic domes.

Following your visit to the Citadel, you will go on an amazing tour of Cairo with your own personal guide and driver, stopping at sites such as the Hanging Church, the Church of St. Sergius, the ancient Synagogue of Ben Ezra, and the fortress of Babylon.

Your sightseeing will come to a conclusion at Khan El Khalili Bazaar at the end of the day.

You will spend an additional night in Giza when your private driver returns you to your hotel in Cairo, close to the pyramids.

Meals included: Breakfast and Lunch

Day 4 : last day of your Egypt Christmas Holidays

Enjoy a delicious breakfast at the hotel before leaving your accommodations. You can join up for one of our optional Cairo Excursions or use your remaining time as you like. At the conclusion of your Egypt Christmas Holidays, our Cairo tour agent and driver will finally pick you up and drive you to the airport for your departure.
