Egypt is a land blessed by millions of wonders from the past! If your bucket list has Egypt in it, make a favor of coming here - you will not regret it. Picture you visiting the wondrous Pyramid, one of the Earth's first man-made structures, which every visitor to this Egypt day tours experiences awesome energy! The pyramids, the sphinx, and the Nile river every now and then are reminders of the countless unexpected wonders that can be found in Egypt.

Far from just the Pyramids, there is an entire country where one can visit Cairo, pass through to Aswan and Luxor, and spend wonderful Egypt travel packages weekends. You surely know how to combine various components of the offered tour into your own style of traveling. A little travel experience is also necessary to let you roam around Egypt without a guide.

Before your Egypt trips to Egypt, you should be aware that the country in general is safe to travel to, with people there who know their culture very well and are very kind and welcoming to visitors. While carrying some local currency, the Egyptian Pound, and learning that credit cards are only accepted at top-end restaurants would be helpful in such arising situations.

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Cairo

We will be grateful to wait for your arrival at the Cairo International Airport; the tour guide will meet you and give you a warm reception. And then you will be taken to the hotel in an air-conditioned and private car for [checking in].

In the evening, we will drive back to Cairo in a comfortable air-conditioned car to settle into your hotel for the night.

Overnight in Cairo.

Welcome drink.

Day 2: Saqqara, Giza Pyramids

Begin your day with a great buffet breakfast at the hotel. The journey brings you to Saqqara Necropolis, an ancient kingdom necropolis where you can visit King Djoser's Step Pyramid complex, noble tombs, and King Teti's Pyramid. The tour guide will summarize Egypt's history and explain the fundamentals of ancient Egyptian religion.

You will also see the tomb of Kagemni, the son-in-law of King Teti, Egypt's monarch during the 6th dynasty. You will then visit Memphis, an ancient city containing relics from several eras of the Pharaonic period, including the alabaster sphinx and the gigantic monument of King Ramses II.

The tour then moves to the Pyramids of Giza, where you will explore the 3 pyramids built by the 4th dynasty kings Cheops, Chephren, and Mycerinus.

After your Cairo tours, return to your hotel for an overnight stay.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 3: Egyptian Museum, Coptic Cairo

Enjoy your breakfast at the hotel, then proceed to the Egyptian Museum, which contains the largest collection of Egyptian artifacts and sculptures in the world, as well as the first royal treasure discovered intact in Luxor, the Treasures of the Golden Pharaoh Tutankhamen, and then move on to visit the old churches, such as the Hanging Church of the Holy Virgin Mary.

Before being transferred to enjoy the Cairo shopping tour in the famous market of Khan El-Khalili, you will have a tea mint or a special fresh mango juice in a local cafe while watching the street life and sellers in the area of Al Hussein.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 4: Tour to Alexandria (Optional)

Following breakfast at the hotel, you will spend the day at leisure, and our recommendations for you are to take the opportunity to discover the Greco-Roman monuments in Alexandria city, the beautiful city on the Mediterranean coast that used to be the capital of Egypt for about a millennium.

You will see the Pompey Pillar, the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, the Citadel of Qaitbay, and the Alexandria Bibliotheca, including a tasty seafood lunch in a fancy restaurant.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 5: Final Departure

Following breakfast at the hotel, you will be transported to the airport, where your tour guide will assist you with boarding formalities for your return trip home.
