Day 2: Giza Pyramids / Saqqara / Memphis

Your private tour will begin early in the morning when Cairo Top Tours' tour guide picks you up in a comfortable, air-conditioned car after you've had breakfast at your hotel. The Great Sphinx and the Pyramids of Giza, one of the Seven Wonders of the World, will be the first stops on our tour.

During this tour, you will see the world's largest statue, which symbolizes the king's might and wisdom and is shaped like the head of a pharaoh and the body of a lion. Additionally, you can view the Khufu, Khafre, and Menkare pyramids from the inside (optional). Next, we'll travel to Saqqara to see the Step Pyramid, also known as the famous Pyramid of Djoser, which is regarded as one of the oldest ancient tombs.

I'll start with the ancient Egyptians, and then we'll visit the well-known Memphis pyramid. Upon entering, you'll notice a sizable museum containing numerous artifacts from the former Pharaonic capital, along with a tiny granite sphinx statue. When we're done, we'll head to a nearby local restaurant for lunch.

Finish and then we will return again to your hotel in Cairo.

Meals included: breakfast, lunch

Day 3: Tour to The Egyptian Museum, old Cairo and Khan el Khalili

Your private tour will begin early in the morning when Cairo Top Tours' tour guide picks you up in a cozy, air-conditioned car after you've had breakfast at your hotel. Seeing the most significant and well-known artifacts that will astound you and transport your thoughts back in time to experience the ancient way of life of the Pharaohs will be the first stop on our exceptional tour, which starts with a visit to the Egyptian Museum in Tahrir. The jewels and treasures of King Tutankhamun and other monarchs are some of the most well-known items in the museum.

After that, we visit Coptic Cairo, where we explore the seven churches and gain insight into the Roman era from your personal guide. We also visit the Coptic Museum and the Hanging Church. After lunch, we head to the closest local restaurant. Next, we visit Cairo's Islamic Quarter, where we see mosques like Al-Hussein and Al-Azhar, and you can also take a tour of the city's largest bazaar, Khan Al-Khalili, and shop. Finally, we head to the renowned Al-Fishawi coffee for mint tea, situated on one of the oldest streets in Egypt. After that, we'll head back to your hotel in Giza or Cairo.

Meals are included: breakfast, lunch

Day 4 :Cairo Citadel & Cairo Tower Tour

Your private tour will begin early in the morning when Cairo Top Tours' tour guide picks you up in a cozy, air-conditioned car after you've had breakfast at your hotel. You will see the most exquisite Ottoman architecture and the magnificence of its design in the past in Cairo when you visit the well-known Saladin Citadel and the Muhammad Ali Mosque inside of it. It was modeled after the well-known Blue Mosque in Istanbul, which was formerly thought to be the seat of the Egyptian government.

the first part of the 20th century, and then we'll have lunch at a neighborhood restaurant. Following that, we'll visit Cairo Tower, the city's highest point, which is 187 meters high and offers a bird's-eye view of the entire city.

You will be able to see all of Cairo's tourist attractions and monuments, including the Egyptian Museum, the Citadel, and the Nile. We'll head back to your hotel in Cairo after the Cairo Tower, which has been the tallest structure in Egypt and North Africa for the past 50 years, breaks the record for being the highest building in Africa.

You can discover more about the fascinating antiquities and history of Egypt and experience the allure of the seemingly endless Nile River during your trip there.

After meeting you in Luxor, we will escort you to the cruise ship for about half an hour. After checking in and unwinding on the platform, we'll explore Luxor—home to one-third of the world's monuments—and eat lunch while cruising the Nile. The first stop on our East Bank Luxor tour is the well-known Karnak Temple Complex, which was constructed over two millennia to function as a natural museum of ancient Egyptian art, a model for the might and splendor of the Golden Age, and a repository of historical knowledge.

Visit the Luxor temple afterwards, which is yet another example of the New Kingdom pharaohs' craftsmanship. After that, you'll be taken to the boat to unwind and enjoy the evening until the restaurant serves your delectable dinner.

First-night stays in the heart of the Nile in Luxor.

Meals include breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 7: West Bank of Luxor/ Edfu

We will visit the Valley of Kings and Queens, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, in the early morning after breakfast on board the boat in the middle of the Nile. You will be able to explore the West Bank of Luxor and the renowned Colossi of Memnon, which are two enormous statues of Amenhotep III.

The explorations are ongoing, and there are a lot of tombs within. After that, you will be able to see the stunning Temple of Hatshepsut, located in Deir el-Bahari, the home of the renowned Lady of the Pharaohs. Following that, we'll eat a delectable lunch before the boat heads south to Edfu.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner are included in meals.

Day 8: Edfu Temple and Kom Ombo Sightseeing

You will eat breakfast in the early morning while taking in the most breathtaking surroundings on the boat. We will set sail for Kom Ombo at the beginning of our journey in order to see the magnificent Kom Ombo Temple, which honors the many gods that the ancient Egyptians revered, as well as the well-known Edfu Temple.

After that, you will eat lunch on board while the ship cruises in the direction of stunning Aswan, which is delighted by its exquisite colors and pattern. Dinner will be served to you while you watch the Nubian show during your overnight Nile cruise in Aswan.
