Additionally, they will facilitate a quick check-in process for you.

Either choose to reserve a tour for the Sound and Light Show at the Giza Pyramids region, or choose to spend your first evening at leisure.

Have a drink as welcoming from your hotel.

Day 2 : Giza Pyramids & Sphinx and Sakkara tour

At Cairo International Airport, a representative from Cairo Top Tours will be waiting with a sign bearing your name. After that, they will drive you in a private air-conditioned vehicle to your hotel. When you arrive, they will assist you in swiftly and easily checking in.

You can take some time to unwind on your first evening or, if you want, you can head to Giza to see the Sound and Light Show. Breakfast at the hotel will mark the beginning of the first day, which will be followed by a meeting with your own Egyptologist from Cairo Top Tours. They will lead you on the Giza excursions, making it simple for you to learn about King Cheops' Great Pyramid and that of his sons, Chephren and Mycerinus. Should you decide to participate in the optional activity of taking a camel ride near the Giza Pyramids, they will also assist you in getting the most unforgettable images of the landmarks. You will next be transported to see the well-known Sphinx, which has been watching over the necropolis for more than 4500 years.

After learning about how the pyramids were built, you can visit the Valley Temple of King Chephren to learn more about the ancient Egyptian mummification process's greatest mysteries. Every pyramid complex in the past was made up of a burial tomb (which was the pyramid itself), a mortuary temple, and a valley temple. The King Khafre pyramid complex is the only one of the structures at the location that is largely unaltered. The pharaoh performed pre-burial rites at the valley temple.

The Giza Pyramids trip includes a panoramic outing that provides a view of every pyramid in Giza and enables visitors to take priceless photos as keepsakes.

The alabaster sphinx statue of Ramses II is on display in the open-air museum at the location of Memphis, the former pharaonic capital during the time of the pyramids or the new kingdom.

After a delectable lunch, you will go to Saqqara, one of Egypt's most important archaeological sites. At Saqqara, you can witness the Step Pyramid Complex and the pyramid of King Djoser, the first structure ever constructed entirely out of six stone bases stacked on top of one another. Additionally, you will have the chance to visit the Kagemni tomb and the Pyramid of Teti, two of the Nobles' tombs.

Your day will be at the end by reaching your hotel.

Stay overnight at a hotel in Cairo.

Day 3 : Cairo sightseeing tour

You can continue your Egypt Tours Packages with the aid of your private tour guide after savoring the open buffet breakfast at your Cairo hotel. Your first trip should be The Egyptian Museum, which has two levels and houses the largest collection of Egyptian artifacts in the entire world. You will also get to witness King Tutankhamen's amazing royal riches, which were found undamaged. The Royal Mummies, Huge Statues, Royal Golden Possessions, and Beautifully Designed Accessories of the Egyptian Queens enrich the Egyptian Museum.

You might anticipate visiting Coptic Cairo after your tour of the Egyptian Museum is over. You may see the crypt where the holy family lived for almost three months during a time of persecution at the Hanging Church, which was built above the towers of the ancient Roman citadel known as Babylon, and at the church of Abu Serga. You will visit the Ben Ezra Synagogue as part of your Coptic Cairo trip, which is where the Pharaoh's daughter supposedly found the basket with baby Moses in the Nile, in accordance with Jewish legend.

You will be accompanied by a private vehicle and guide to see the Citadel of Saladin after eating lunch at a local restaurant. This destination stands out among all of our Cairo tours because it offers a beautiful view of the ancient mosques, domes, and minarets that make up Islamic Cairo. In 1805, Mohamed Ali built the mosque, which was inspired by Turkish architecture.

After being moved, your Islamic Cairo tours will begin, where you can tour the ancient streets, gates, and walls of Fatimid Cairo. In Cairo's Khan El Khalili Bazaar, you will also get a one-of-a-kind shopping experience.

In order to learn more about the Isis and Osiris story, the Temple of Philae will also be visited. This temple in Egypt was converted into a Coptic church during the Roman Empire. Following that, guests will be returned to the Nile Cruise, from where they will depart for Kom Ombo. Visitors can savor their buffet meal throughout the voyage. Additionally, you will marvel at the Colossi of Memnon, which were once part of a mortuary temple located in Thebes (now Luxor).
