After enjoying a Welcome Drink upon arrival, we will review your 5-day Cairo and Red Sea tour itinerary with you to ensure that it complies with the schedule and incorporates any optional Cairo sightseeing that you may want to do.

You can watch an optional Sound and light show at the Giza pyramids the following day if you have enough time to see the performance and learn about Egyptian history.

Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Saqqara, Memphis

Take your breakfast at the hotel to start Our journey which shows three iconic locations on Day 2: the mysterious Giza Pyramids, the historic necropolis of Saqqara, and the formerly prosperous capital of Memphis. We explore the mysteries that have enthralled historians more fully as we move through these revered spaces.

Giza Pyramids

Our first stop brings us face to face with the enigmatic Giza Pyramids, a testament to the incredible ingenuity and ambition of ancient Egyptian civilization. Rising majestically against the desert backdrop, the Great Pyramid of Giza, also known as the Pyramid of Khufu.

Saqqara

Continuing our expedition, we venture to Saqqara, an ancient burial ground that serves as a gateway to the afterlife. Here, the Step Pyramid of Djoser stands as an architectural marvel, a precursor to the grandeur of the Giza Pyramids. Also, you will visit the tomb of Kagemni, who was the first pharaoh of the sixth dynasty.

Memphis

Our final destination on this captivating journey takes us to Memphis, once the thriving capital of ancient Egypt. The remnants of this mighty city are a testament to its historical significance, with colossal statues, temples, and artifacts.

You will visit there, The Sphinx of Memphis is the largest Alabastro sculpture ever built. Currently, the Alabaster Sphinx is on display in the open-air museum of Mit Rahina.

Day 3: Islamic Cairo, Coptic Cairo, Egyptian Museum

Islamic Cairo Tour
