Itinerario

Day 1: Arrive to Cairo

Our representative will meet you at Cairo International Airport and our tour leader will transfer you to your hotel so you can check in quickly. He will make sure that all pick-up times are accurate for your Egypt Tours Packages excursions, which will begin at the Pyramids of Egypt. Spend the night and get ready for your interesting activities.

A welcome drink will be served at the hotel.

Day 2: Pyramids and Sphinx Excursion

This half-day excursion to the Giza Pyramids and the Sphinx is the perfect way to start the second day of your 12-day group tour package. At 9:00 AM, we'll pick you up from your Cairo hotel and drive you to the Giza plateau, where we'll see the Great Pyramid of Cheops, the Pyramid of Chephren, and the Pyramid of Mycerinus.

One of the most amazing structures ever created by humans is the Great Pyramid. It took more than 20 years to construct, and only copper tools were used. It was finished around 2560 B.C.

The Great Pyramid has stood for so long without being damaged or destroyed by earthquakes or other natural disasters that it is regarded as one of the seven wonders of the ancient world.

After seeing the pyramids, we'll move on to the Great Sphinx, which is another ancient marvel. One of the oldest monuments still standing today is the stone sculpture, which is known as the Sphinx which has a lion's body and a human head.

After that, if you still have time, you can ride a camel through a nearby desert village! (Optional activity)

After this excursion, we will return to your hotel in Cairo for some free time, and overnight there.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 3: Alexandria Trip

After an enjoyable morning in the hotel, you will travel for two hours to Alexandria as part of your day trip from Cairo. It is one of the most visited tourist destinations in Egypt and has a very diverse population. You'll have time to go exploring, so consider taking a stroll along the Alexandria Corniche, a waterfront walkway that hugs the Mediterranean Sea.

You will see the Alexandrian Bibliotheca, which was constructed in 300 BC and burned to the ground in 48 BC. The Citadel of Qaitbay, a significant military building constructed in the 15th century, is situated on the Mediterranean coast where the renowned lighthouse Pharos (one of the seven artificial wonders of the world) once stood. You will also get to see the Tomb of Alexander the Great and Pompey's pillar, which was built for Pompey Magnus in 331 BC.

After enjoying mouthwatering fresh seafood at a restaurant, we will transfer you back to your hotel in Alexandria for the night.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 4: Alexandria to Cairo - Egyptian Museum - Train to Aswan

Return to Cairo to continue your amazing Cairo day tours after the daily breakfast. We're going to The Egyptian Museum in Cairo today, which is one of the most well-known museums in the entire world. The only royal treasure that was discovered in excellent condition, along with the treasures of other pharaohs, can be found here. These treasures include King Tutankhamun's treasures. You must arrive early if you want to see the Egyptian Museum. The enormous museum is packed with fascinating artifacts, including mummies, sarcophagi, and funerary statues.

A delicious lunch will be served in a famous local restaurant before you leave for the train station to catch the sleeper train to Aswan and spend the night in your compartment.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 5: Arrive to Aswan - Aswan Excursions

Following breakfast on board, you will disembark at the Aswan train station to begin your Aswan day tour, visiting the most fascinating sites like the High Dam and the Philae Temple with breathtaking Nile River views. Millions of people in Egypt and Sudan now lead completely different lives thanks to the engineering marvel, which is known as the Aswan High Dam. It is also a well-liked tourist destination that is reachable from Aswan via private vehicle. After that, you will go to the Philae Temple, which is still visible from a boat or helicopter despite being submerged beneath Lake Nasser.

You will have some free time after lunch to unwind before returning to your hotel in Aswan.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6: Abu Simbel Temples

You'll start your journey to Abu Simbel Temples today. Without visiting the temples Pharaoh Ramesses II erected to honor himself and his wife, your excursion to Abu Simbel is not complete. Ramesses II, who was regarded as the greatest builder in ancient Egypt, who constructed these enormous structures in the 13th century BC. Two statues of King Ramesses II can be found inside the temple, which was carved out of a mountainside. You will see exquisitely ornate decorations inside the temple as part of the tour. The rock-hewn boat, which was carved from a single piece of granite, will also be open for you to enter.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 7: Aswan to Luxor - Luxor Temple

We will leave Aswan this morning to visit Luxor, which is the largest outdoor museum and the centre of the golden age of the new kingdom in Egyptian history! The Great Luxor Temple, which is one of the most significant temples in ancient Egypt, will be the first stop on your Luxor day tours. It was built around 1400 BC. King Amenhotep III of the 18th dynasty (New Kingdom) began construction on this enormous ancient Egyptian temple, and Ramses II of the 19th dynasty completed it. It is situated on the Nile's eastern bank. The golden mask of Ramesses II and the statue of Seti I are just two examples of the many pharaoh statues that we will see.

After that, you will be transferred to your hotel in Luxor for check-in and overnight.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 8: Luxor West Bank - Transfer to Hurghada by Land

Before continuing our Egypt group tour packages to visit the East Bank of Luxor, have breakfast at your Luxor hotel and then meet your licensed tour guide and private driver. One of Egypt's largest and most significant religious sites, the Karnak Temple Complex, will be our first stop today. The temple has a long history and features a variety of buildings, such as festival halls, sanctuaries, and pylons.

After that, we'll depart for a delicious lunch. While savoring a mouthwatering meal, you can admire some of Egypt's most iconic structures. At Deir Al-Bahari, the Hatshepsut Temple should be your second stop. This limestone building was erected as a memorial to Queen Hatshepsut of the 18th Dynasty and as a shrine and burial temple for Amun Re. The Colossi of Memnon and the Valley of the Kings are your next stops, after which you will travel by land for another two to three hours to Hurghada, where you will spend the night in a hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 9: Submarine Excursion in Hurghada

Have an enjoyable breakfast before you start your exciting Hurghada day tours. On the Sindbad Submarine, we'll go on a two-hour dive to see the unusual marine life and vibrant coral reefs in the Red Sea. We'll go on a pleasant dive under the water in the 44-passenger-only Middle Eastern submarine. It will descend 22 meters beneath the surface, where a wide variety of marine life can be seen. You can participate even if you can't swim underwater. You will be taken back to your Hurghada hotel following the excursion.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 10: Free Day in Hurghada

There are no organized activities during this day in Hurghada; you may eat a tasty breakfast at the hotel and spend the day as you please, or you may choose one of our optional Hurghada day tours. Overnight in Hurghada.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 11: Hurghada - Back to Cairo

You will be driven to Hurghada Airport after breakfast to catch your flight to Cairo International Airport, after which you will have a lot of options for the rest of the day. You can go on a shopping tour of Cairo at Khan El Khalili Bazaar, one of the oldest markets in the Middle East, which is the best location for Islamic Cairo trips, or you can just enjoy a relaxing Nile cruise dinner in Cairo aboard a sailing restaurant while watching an interesting dance performance (Optional tours). Your personal tour leader can also help you arrange an interesting Coptic Cairo tour. Hotel stay the night in Cairo.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 12: Final Departure

You will be driven to Cairo International Airport after breakfast for your final departure.
