itinerário

Day 1: Arrival to Cairo & check in

When you arrive in Cairo, a professional representative from our organization will meet you at the Cairo international Airport and arrange for a private, air-conditioned automobile ride to your accommodation in Cairo.

Together, we will reevaluate your travel itinerary and assist you with every stage of the check-in process.

You will stay an overnight in your Hotel.

Day 2: Pyramids Sightseeing Tour

After breakfast on your 2nd day, we will come to your hotel in a private vehicle to begin your day trips around Cairo. The journey starts near the Great Pyramids and includes stops to the Great Sphinx, King Khufu's Valley Temple, and the Giza Pyramids of Khufu, Khafra, and Mankawra.

After lunch, you'll head to Dahshour with your guide after lunch at a local eatery to have a tour of the area and learn about all of its features before moving on to Memphis. You'll be taken back to your accommodation by car when the day is complete.

Meals: Breakfast & Lunch.

Day 3: Alexandria Tour

Following breakfast, our tour guide will meet you in the hotel lobby at 6:30 a.m. for a delightful day trip around Alexandria. Egypt's most significant Mediterranean city, Alexandria, will be our destination when we fly there from Cairo.

The Citadel of Qaitbey, a fortification dating back to the fourteenth century, will be your first visit. It might be in the harbor. The remnants of the original Alexandria lighthouse are still clearly visible. An important first-century archaeological site is the three levels of the greatest Roman cemetery, the Kom el Shogafa catacombs, which were excavated out of rock. More than 300 mummies, the most popular burial deity, and other Greco-Roman symbols may be found on its three basement floors.

A seafood restaurant serves lunch, where you may sample some of the most popular Egyptian cuisine. After relaxing and revitalizing at the Pompay Pillar, you'll view the Serapeus Temple Ruins and Alexandria's Pompey Column. According to some historians, this significant Roman general was killed in combat and interred here.

Finally, you will visit the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, one of the most significant cultural hubs in the eastern Mediterranean, at the end of the day. We will be taking you back to your Cairo hotel in the late afternoon.

Day 4: The Egyptian Civilization National Museum and Cairo Tour

After breakfast, you'll go to the Egyptian culture National Museum, which showcases the vast array of diverse aspects of Egyptian culture throughout history. Our tour guide will take you up from your accommodation. After lunch, our guide will drive you to Coptic Cairo.

View the churches constructed atop the tomb where Jesus Christ, his mother, and St. Joseph the Carpenter resided for more than three months. The Hanging Church and St. Sergius Church are these churches. The Ben Ezra Synagogue, which was constructed before to the ninth century and has long been utilized as a Coptic church, is the final structure you will view.

When your vacation is over, we'll drive you back to your accommodation.

Meals: Breakfast & Lunch.

Day 5: White Desert and Bahariya Oasis

After your breakfast, start your White Desert Tour departs from Cairo and includes a visit to The Bahariya Oasis. The journey may begin anywhere, much like most of our day tours from Cairo. An air-conditioned car ride from Cairo to the Bahariya Oasis will take four hours.

After that, we'll go to the White Desert for a special White Desert Safari. The Valley of El Haize, a lush settlement in the middle of the desert that is located before the black desert, will be traversed on our route to Cairo, which is located south of the oasis. If we have time, we may pause and look at the nearby water source.

Take your lunch and don't miss Crystal Mountain, which has ancient quartz crystal formations. Your local guides will make your lunch as we enjoy our camping experience in the White Desert, where there's a good chance of seeing a breathtaking sunset. Spend the evening in nature, away from the smog of the big towns, while admiring the magnificent sky.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 6: White & Black desert

Breakfast will be given to you as you enjoy the breathtaking views of the White Desert on the sixth day. You will next see other stunning white limestone rocks, such as the hill that resembles a rabbit, the chicken formation, the rock that mimics the Sphinx, and the whale-shaped rock. We'll also snap photos of the nearby springs and the breathtaking natural elements of the desert. You will then be driven to Cairo via the Black Desert, which is home to stunning mountains covered with tiny black volcanic rocks.

Before moving on, we'll make a stop in Bahariya to see the stunning sand dunes, salt lake, and fruit orchards.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 7: Final departure

On the last day, when it's time for you to depart Egypt, take your favorite breakfast and our tour guide will be there to meet you at the designated hour in the hotel lobby.

Following that, you'll be returned to Cairo International Airport with a fantastic collection of memories, photos, and experiences that will last a lifetime.

Meals: Breakfast.
