Day2- Tour to Giza Pyramids, , Dahshour

You will be picked up after breakfast and driven to the magnificent Giza pyramids by our tour guide. In addition to appreciating the Great Pyramid of King Cheops, one of the Seven Wonders of the World, while you're there, you may also go on an adventure and explore the pyramid's inside. Then the great Sphinx that stands watch above the Pyramids will show itself. To go to the Dahshour pyramids, we then switch buses. Visit the Red and Bent Pyramids at Dahshour, which King Cheops' father, king Sinfru, constructed. Discover the errors that the ancient Egyptians made when constructing the pyramids.

Afterwards, before going back to your hotel, have lunch at a local restaurant.

Day3 - Tour To National Museum Of Egyptian Civilization & Sultan Hassan mosque

To start your day off right, we will pick you up from your hotel, and our tour guide will be waiting for you in an air-conditioned car. The National Museum of Egyptian Civilization will be your next stop (NEMC). It is regarded as the first museum in the entire world to present a thorough overview of the Egyptian Civilization.

Numerous artifacts are on display at NMEC to provide visitors a glimpse of Egyptian civilization over the ages, beginning with the pharaohs and ending with the modern era.

Then we'll head over to Citadel Square. We'll go to the Sultan Hassan Mosque, a stunning Mamluke structure built in 1359. El-Rifai mosque (1912), with its distinctive design and magnificent prayer hall decorations, and Sultan Hassan mosque are symbols of old Islamic Egypt, just as the Giza pyramids are for ancient pharaonic Egypt.

You'll be taken back to your hotel by a driver at the conclusion of the day!

Day 4-Embarkation in Luxor

Meet our tour guide at the train or airport in Luxor. He will be carrying a sign bearing your name and the Cairo Top Tours logo. After arriving in Luxor, you will be driven for nearly 30 minutes in a private, non-smoking air-conditioned vehicle to your Nile River cruise, which will be your means of experiencing the allure of the endless river and learning about Egyptian history and culture.

After checking in and relaxing in your cabin for a while, you can eat your lunch on the Nile cruise before we start seeing Luxor's top attractions.

You'll go to the East Bank of Luxor. The starting point for Egypt day trips is the complex of Karnak Temples, which was constructed over two millennia to serve as a natural museum of ancient Egyptian art, a blueprint of the grandeur and splendour of a golden age, and a treasure of historical knowledge. After that, visit the Temple of Luxor to view yet another illustration of the significance of the New Kingdom pharaohs. After that, you may unwind on your boat and make the most of your leisure time until the restaurant on your boat serves you a delicious lunch. On the first night of your Egypt Nile River Cruise at Luxor, take pleasure in calm and quiet.

Possibly an optional trip to the Karnak temple's light and sound show,

Day 5- West Bank tours and sailing to Esna and Edfu

In Egypt, have a great breakfast. Your tour guide will pick you up so that you can start your Luxor day tours to the West Bank. When you visit the New Kingdom pharaohs' rock-carved tombs in the Valley of the Kings, one of the required visits on any trip to Egypt, you may learn more about mummification in ancient Egypt. Today, we will depart the boat and visit two of Egypt's most well-known tourist destinations.

If forced, we would choose Ramses IV, Siptah, Thutmose III, and Ramses IX as our top four favourite tombs. The Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, also known as El-Dier El Bahari and devoted to the sun deity Amun Re, will be our destination.

In the Deir el-Bahari valley, the temple was sculpted from the steep limestone cliffs that tower above the desert.

After this wonderful excursion to Luxor, you will be returned to the cruise where you will enjoy lunch as the Nile cruise. An oriental supper will be provided to you on board once you arrive at Edfu Temple, where you will spend the night. Following that, you may enjoy musical performances and belly dance on the calm Nile waters.
