

Dubai Arrival

Our tourist guide will receive you from Dubai International airport to start our impressive unique tour.

Experience a live belly dance show and a desert safari in Dubai.

Take an exciting ride through the attracting Dubai desert with our Evening Sunset Safari tour. Enjoy thrilling adventures such as camel riding and dune smashing before dealing with yourself to a delicious BBQ dinner and paintings, complete with fire shows and live belly dance performances. This desert safari offers a breathtaking and unique experience among Dubai's incredible landscape. Don't pass up this must-do adventure in Dubai. The desert comes to life as the sun sets, offering enormous views of endless red sand dunes and wonderfully lower temperatures. Come with us for an unforgettable journey into the heart of the desert!

Take a tour of Dubai City to see modern Dubai.

At First we will visit Burj khalifa tower. Burj khalifa is an Incredible skyscraper Burj Khalifa, also called Khalifa Tower, is situated in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. This architectural wonder, which is 829.8 metres tall and was designed by a group of well-known engineers that included Adrian Smith and Skidmore, Owings, and Merrill, is the highest constructed by humans building in the world.

An Incredible trip in Dubai city

After Taking your breakfast in the hotel. WE will take you to Dubai museum, the Dubai Museum gives guests with a fascinating look into the rich history and past of the city. This museum, which is located in Dubai's historic region, provides perspectives on the traditional way of life that existed in the area before to the quick progress. See displays that highlight traditional Emirati customs, outdated artefacts, and Dubai's growth from a sleepy fishing village to an international city. Being one of the oldest buildings in Dubai and a reminder of the city's strong past, the Al Fahidi Fort is a cultural landmark that goes to the 18th century.

Then, We will have a look on Dubai Creek, Bur Dubai and Deira are the two main parts of the city separated by the historic Dubai Creek. This natural saltwater entry has been an important part of Dubai's growth, acting as a centre of trade and commerce for centuries. It's still a full feature of the cityscape today, scattered with both modern yachts and traditional boats.

Taking an abra, a traditional wooden boat, to cross Dubai Creek from one side to the other allows visitors to experience all of the city's appeal.

After that, We will have an exciting experience in ?One of Dubai's most recognisable landmarks, the Jumeirah Mosque is well-known for both its breathtaking architecture and cultural significance. ??Being the only mosque in Dubai to welcome non-Muslim guests, it offers an uncommon opportunity to get a firsthand understanding of Islamic traditions and customs. Built in the classic Fatimid style, the mosque has luxurious roofs and okay detailing that add to its relaxing and spiritual environment. If you're interested in learning more about Islamic customs, architecture, and ceremonies, the mosque's the inside can be explored with guided tours. The mosque, which is situated in the wealthy Jumeirah neighbourhood, is wonderfully illuminated at night and provides a picturesque scene with the Dubai skyline in the background.

From Dubai to Cairo

The Flight From Dubai to Cairo to have a new adventure by Exploring Egypt and its historical, religious and natural sites.

Explore The Great Pyramids of Memphis, Sakkara, along with Giza

At first, After having your breakfast in the hotel. We will visit Pyramids of Giza, A historical landmark of Egypt. It's Out of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, the Giza Pyramids and the Sphinx are the only ones that remain standing. (Lists of the Seven Wonders differ; some list the Great Pyramid alone, while others list all the pyramids.) The largest pyramid in Egypt, the Great Pyramid, was built over 4,500 years ago. It is a remarkable structure.

Then, We will have a trip to our next station is Known by many names, Sakkara, or Saqqara, is an old Egyptian cemetery close to Cairo that is well-known for its historical significance and archaeological riches. With its famous Step Pyramid of Djoser standing as the oldest stone structure of its kind in the world, a visit to Saqqara pyramid offers an intriguing window into ancient Egyptian civilization. Discover the enormous necropolis, which is home to a large number of Old Kingdom pyramids, mastabas, and tombs. Admire the beautiful reliefs and complex hieroglyphics that adorn the walls of these historic buildings, which shed light on ancient Egyptian beliefs and practices. Saqqara is a must-visit location for history buffs and tourists attempting to solve the mysteries of Egypt's past because of its rich history and architectural marvels.

Finally, We will explore Situated approximately 20 kilometres south of Cairo in Egypt, close to the village of Mit Rahina, is the Mit Rahina Museum, also called the Memphis Open-Air Museum. Memphis was once the vibrant capital of ancient Egypt and one of the most significant cities in its history. It is the subject of this large outdoor museum. The remnants of this ancient city, which include enormous statues, sphinxes, temples, and other artefacts that provide a glimpse into Memphis' splendour during its heyday, are open for exploration by guests to the Mit Rahina Museum. The enormous limestone statue of Ramses II, which bears witness to the importance of the city during the New Kingdom era, is one of the museum's highlights.

Discover The Treasures of Cairo

After taking your breakfast meal in the hotel, We will move to a museum to explore ancient Antiquities. Our first stop will be at The Museum of Egyptian Antiquities, it is Situated in Cairo, Egypt, the Museum of Egyptian Antiquities, also referred to as the Egyptian Museum, is a veritable gold mine of historic relics. Founded in 1902, this esteemed museum displays Egypt's rich and fascinating history spanning thousands of years, and it is home to the largest collection of pharaonic antiquities in the world. The famous Tutankhamun's treasures, which include the young pharaoh's famous golden mask, jewellery, and other priceless artefacts found in his tomb in the Valley of the Kings, are just one of the many exhibits that visitors to the Egyptian Museum can explore. A wide variety of statues, sarcophagi, mummies, and commonplace items from different eras of ancient Egyptian history are also housed in the museum's collection, offering priceless insights into the culture, artwork, and way of life of the civilization.

After that, We will have to explore the Coptic Cairo, commonly referred to as "Old Cairo" or "Christian Cairo," is a well-known historic neighbourhood in Cairo, Egypt, distinguished by its rich religious history and Coptic Christian landmarks. It includes the Babylon Fortress, the Ben Ezra Synagogue, the Church of Saint Sergius and Bacchus, the Coptic Museum, and the Hanging Church. Visitors have the opportunity to delve into the spiritual atmosphere, historical artefacts, and lasting influence of Christianity in Egypt, offering a distinctive window into the history and identity of the area.

Finally, We will have to visit a centre of trade and commerce, Khan Al-Khalili is a 14th-century marketplace in Islamic Cairo, Egypt, providing a fusion of Middle Eastern charm and Egyptian culture. In addition to discovering handmade crafts, textiles, jewellery, spices, and traditional Egyptian souvenirs, visitors can explore the maze-like passageways. There are also cafes and restaurants in the market that serve Middle Eastern and authentic Egyptian food. A trip to Khan Al-Khalili is a voyage through time that encapsulates the spirit of Cairo, the dynamic capital.

Final Departure

Our tourist Guide will deliver you to the airport before your flight.

■