

Upon your arrival at Cairo International Airport, we will handle all necessary procedures, including luggage identification. Subsequently, you will be transported in a private car from the airport to your hotel for check-in.

After completing the check-in process, take some time to relax. In the evening, our team will pick you up from the hotel for a delightful dinner cruise on the Nile. Experience the enchanting scenery of the Nile River and enjoy the performance of a talented folkloric band while savoring a delicious dinner.

Day 2: Discover the Magical Pyramids

Following breakfast, your tour guide will transfer you to explore some of Cairo's primary tourist attractions, beginning with the Giza Pyramids Complex. Constructed during the 4th dynasty around 2400 years ago, the complex encompasses the impressive Giza Pyramids, the Valley Temple, a massive Sphinx, three larger pyramids, and six smaller pyramids.

The Great Pyramid, belonging to "King Khufu," stands as the oldest and largest of the three pyramids on the Giza plateau. This colossal pyramid, reaching a height of 147 meters, required 20 years and 2,300,000 stones to build.

Moving on to the Great Sphinx, measuring 73 meters in length, 19 meters in width, and 20 meters in height, it once belonged to "King Chephren" and holds the distinction of being the largest statue on Earth—an ancient masterpiece.

For those intrigued by ancient Egyptian mummification practices, a visit to the Valley Temple is a must. This granite temple, the sole survivor of its kind, is situated on the Giza plateau.

Enjoy a scenic lunch at a restaurant overlooking the Pyramids or the Nile.

Afterward, explore the Step Pyramid in Saqqara, a marvel built during the reign of Egyptian King Djoser in the 27th century BC. Admire the ingenious construction of this 62-meter-tall pyramid, comprising six steps stacked atop one another.

Continuing our journey, we visit the City of Memphis, the first Egyptian capital and a significant center between Upper and Lower Egypt. Protected by the god Ptah, Memphis held immense importance in ancient times.

Concluding the day, we'll return you to your hotel for the night.

Day 3 : cairo day tours

Your tour guide will pick you up from your accommodation for a day filled with exploration:

Our first destination is the egyptian Museum, home to an impressive collection of artwork spanning the past 5000 years. With approximately 250,000 genuine artifacts on display, including Tutankhamen's wealth, gold, and jewelry collection preserved in his tomb for over 3,500 years.

Lunch will be served at a nearby Cairo restaurant before continuing the journey.

Next, we will visit the Citadel of Salah El Din, a colossal structure that served as Egypt's administrative center until the 1860s. Constructed during Salah Al-Din's rule, the building began in 1176 and was completed in 1182.

Following that, a visit to the Mosque of Mohamed Ali, also known as "The Alabaster Mosque," built between 1820 and 1838. The majority of its walls are crafted from pure alabaster, resembling the Blue Mosque in Istanbul.

We will then proceed to Khan El Khalili Market, a must-visit on any Cairo journey. Established around 970 AD, the same year Cairo was founded, it is the oldest and most renowned market in the Middle East.

At the end of the day, we will take you back to your hotel in Cairo for an overnight stay.

Day 4: Cairo to Luxor / East Bank of Luxor Tour

Following breakfast, check out of your accommodation and proceed to Cairo airport for a flight to Luxor.

Upon arrival, meet your Egyptologist tour guide to kick off your Egypt Easter vacation, starting with the city's renowned attractions:

Firstly, explore the Temple of Karnak.

The Temple of Karnak boasts the most stunning scenery in Egypt, constituting the world's largest temple complex. It is the result of contributions from various Pharaohs and ancient builders. Encompassing three main structures, the temple spans over 247 acres of land.

Afterwards, transfer to your Nile cruise for lunch and some relaxation before your tour guide takes you to see the Luxor Temple at night.

Secondly, visit The Luxor Temple.

The Luxor Temple played a pivotal role in the Opet Festival, the most significant celebration of its time. Primarily constructed by Amenhotep III and King Rameses II, the temple hosted rituals for the festival, aiming to harmonize the ruler's divine and earthly aspects.

Return to your Luxor Nile cruise for the evening.

Day 5: West Bank of Luxor/ Edfu

Conclude your Egypt Easter vacation with a tour of key attractions on Luxor's west bank after breakfast on the Nile Cruise, including:

Firstly, explore The valley of Kings.

This site hosts numerous tombs, including those of renowned Pharaoh Ramses II and the young Pharaoh Tutankhamen. Serving as the ultimate resting place for Egyptian kings from the 18th to the 20th dynasties, the tombs are adorned with an abundance of items intended for the king's afterlife. Almost all of the funerary decorations have remarkably endured.

Next, visit the Temple of Hatshepsut.

Regarded as one of the most beautiful and well-preserved temples from Ancient Egypt, Hatshepsut's temple features three levels, with two broad ramps connecting them in the center.

Following that, explore the Colossi of Memnon.

These two colossal stone statues of King Amenhotep III are the sole remnants of a complete burial temple. Quartzite sandstone fragments, transported 700 kilometers from Cairo, were used in creating these sculptures.

After taking a lunch break, spend the night on your Nile cruise.

Day 6 : Visit Edfu and Kom Ombo Temples

Before heading to the Kom Ombo Temple, enjoy breakfast on board the ship.

The Kom Ombo Temple, situated with a Nile view, comprises two distinct temples, each featuring its own hypostyle halls, sanctuaries, and entrances.

Continue your journey to the Edfu Temple, dedicated to the Egyptian god Horus. The Edfu Temple, the best-preserved Greco-Roman building in Egypt, showcases a "Play" depicting Horus triumphing over Seth on its walls.

Sail to Aswan in the afternoon and spend the night on board.

Day7 - Aswan Nile Cruise Tours

Indulge in a delightful breakfast buffet on your Egypt Nile cruise before meeting your personal tour guide for Aswan excursions:

High Dam:

Explore the High Dam, a monumental structure that safeguarded Egypt from the Nile floods, mitigating the historical issue of prolonged water inundation.

Aswan, Egypt's southernmost city, is located nearly 1,000 kilometers from Cairo, positioned at the initial Nile falls.

Incomplete Obelisk:

Witness the Incomplete Obelisk, a testament to ancient Egyptian quarrying techniques used in creating the grand pyramids, temples, pillars, and obelisks during different historical periods.

Temple of Philae:

Continue your Aswan sightseeing at the Philae Temple, one of the four locations central to the myth of Isis, Osiris, and Horus. Dedicated to the worship of the goddess Isis, it stands as a remarkable ancient structure.

A delectable dinner will be prepared and served on board the cruise boat in the evening. Experience an engaging Nubian show before spending the night in Aswan, returning to the ship after being transferred and enjoying lunch.

Indulge in a day filled with breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 8: Disembarkation/ Fly Back to Cairo

After breakfast in the morning, we'll check out but not before we visit the temples of Abu Simbel. Due to their unusual architecture, the two Temples of Abu Simbel are regarded as the best buildings from ancient Egypt. Around 1200 B.C., King Ramses II constructed the temples, which are rock-cut structures. In the first temple, King Ramses II is honoured, and in the second, his loving wife Queen Nefertari is honoured. Both temples have exquisite sculptures and artwork throughout. Due to its meticulously hand-carved pillars, statues, sculptures, and wall paintings, this temple is a must-see.

After breakfast, you head to the Aswan airport to take a flight to Cairo. Transfer from Cairo airport to your place of lodging. (just to eat breakfast)

Day9 : fayoum day tour

After enjoying breakfast in the morning, we'll proceed with check-out, but not before a visit to:
