

Next, you will visit the Pyramid of Chephren, the second-largest pyramid on the Giza Plateau. King Chephren, who also built the Sphinx and the Valley Temple, constructed this pyramid. You will also have the opportunity to explore the Pyramid of Mycerinus, the smallest of the three main pyramids at Giza.

This pyramid stands out for its use of granite from quarries near Aswan, in addition to limestone. One of the highlights of your visit will be the Great Sphinx, a monumental statue with the head of a pharaoh and the body of a lion. This iconic symbol represents intelligence and strength, and your guide will share its historical and cultural significance with you. During your visit to the Giza Plateau, you will also enjoy a panoramic tour of all the Giza pyramids, providing you with the perfect opportunity to capture memorable photos. Additionally, visit the Solar Boat behind the Pyramid of Cheops.

Afterwards, you will proceed to Sakkara, where you will explore the Stepped Pyramid Complex. This complex is home to the oldest pyramid in history, built by King Djoser over 4,600 years ago. You will also have the opportunity to enter the pyramid of Teti, known for its spectacular interior, and explore the tombs of the nobles at Sakkara, which offer insights into the daily life of ancient Egyptians.

The final stop of the day will be Memphis, the first capital in Egyptian history. Inside the Memphis open-air museum, you will see a famous statue of King Ramses II and an alabaster sphinx, providing further insights into ancient Egyptian history.

After the tour, you will have your lunch at a local restaurant then you will be transferred back to your hotel in Cairo for an overnight stay.

Enjoy the rest of your evening at your leisure.
