Day 1: Tour to Giza pyramids, Egyptian Museum and Old Cairo

The journey starts in Giza, where you can see the great sphinx, which is shaped like a lion with a pharaoh's head on top, as well as the more than 4,500-year-old Giza pyramids. Our Egyptologist will also go over the historical building methods used to build these temples.

Our next stop will be The Egyptian Museum in Tahrir, which is one of Egypt's most significant museums because it has the most extensive suggestions related to ancient Egyptian history. This collection highlights some exceptional items that belonged to Pharaohs and their ancestors, including the magnificent tombs of King Tutankhamun and the intriguing room of mummified animals. Additionally, it contains more than 100,000 artifacts from various cultures that have had a variety of influences on Ancient Egyptian Civilization over the course of thousands of years.

We'll then eat lunch in a traditional Egyptian restaurant in Cairo. From this point on, we will include a stop in the Islamic district of old Cairo in our itinerary. The first stop on the journey will be at the Saladin Citadel. You can go to the "Mohamed Ali Mosque" in this magnificent citadel to see the fortifications. It is significant to note that the entire ancient city can be seen from this fortress.

At the end of this historical journey, you will visit Coptic Cairo, the city's Christian district. The Holy Family hid during their flight to Egypt in the Ben Ezra Synagogue, The Hanging Church, and the Church of St. Sergius, also known as the Church of the Cave.

Finally, after such a program in the magnificent towns of Cairo and Giza, we drive you back to your accommodation.

Day 2: Baharia Oasis and White desert tour

The day trip departs from your hotel in Cairo at 7:00 AM and travels through the surrounding desert landscapes. Our first stop of the day will be the incredible Bahariya Oasis, a desert that is renowned throughout the world for its alluring nature and breathtaking vistas.

We would change from the minibus to the jeep when we arrived, then we would begin traveling to the Western Desert. Get ready for an unforgettable desert adventure filled with thrilling thrills. Tour the oasis with the aid of your guide, taking in the vast setting of shady palm trees and natural springs.

After lunch, continue your tour of The white Desert with a stop at the nearby Agabat, a stunning valley with imposing white cliff walls and yellow limestone cliffs. Sandboarding practice on the sand dunes is permitted here using a Jeep 4x4. Take in the endless views by scaling a few sand dunes.

After going far into the desert, we would arrive at the volcanic mountains, which rise from the desert like volcanic cones. On our way there, we would stop at the black basalt-covered volcanic peak known as Al-Marsous. For a thorough overview of the Oasis's surroundings, let's stop at the overlook.

You will travel to Egypt's Crystal Mountain as your final stop. This desert location is breathtakingly beautiful and covered in a layer of black basalt. The environment has a certain air of mystery thanks to the sun-glittering crystals. Although there are minerals nearby, you shouldn't take any with you.

Around 10 PM, our tour guide and driver will return you to your hotel in Cairo, capping off our excursion.

Day 3: Alexandria attractions

Around 6:30 a.m., our tour guide will be ready to meet you in the hotel lobby for a lovely day trip to Alexandria. We will travel from Cairo to Alexandria, Egypt's most important Mediterranean city.

You will begin your journey at the 15th-century fortification known as The Citadel of Qaitbey, which is located in the port. It once housed the well-known Alexandria lighthouse, the remains of which can still be seen. Then visit the catacombs at Kom el Shogafa, the largest Roman cemetery and a significant first-century archaeological site. It has three levels cut out of the rock. On its three underground levels are more than 300 mummies, many Greco-Roman themes, and the most common burial deities.

You'll have lunch at a seafood restaurant, where you can try some of the most well-known Egyptian dishes. After some rest, you'll visit Alexandria's Pompey Column and the Serapeus Temple Ruins, where they both still stand. A notable Roman general is said to have died in battle and been buried here, according to some historians.

At the end of the day, you will visit the Library of Alexandrina, one of the most significant cultural centers in the eastern Mediterranean. In the end, we'll return you to your hotel in Cairo in the late afternoon.

Day 4: Final departure

On the final day, our tour guide will be waiting to pick you up in the hotel lobby at the appointed time so you can be transferred back to the Cairo airport and depart Egypt with new experiences, breathtaking photos, and irreplaceable memories.
