Itinerario

Day 1: Arrival

When you arrive in Egypt, a representative from Cairo Top Tours will pick you up from the airport in a private, air-conditioned vehicle and drive you to your hotel so you can complete the check-in process.

Day 2 : Giza and Dahshour Necropolises

Our knowledgeable tour guide will pick you up from your hotel on the second day of our tour in an air-conditioned vehicle and take you to the magnificent pyramids located in the Giza Necropolis. You can learn everything there is to know about the history and civilizations of ancient Egypt by visiting the Valley Temple of King Chephren, the Great Sphinx, and the three Great Pyramids—Khufu, Khafra, and Mankaura.

After that, we'll head to Dahshour Necropolis for lunch at a nearby local restaurant. There, we'll learn about the Pyramids of Dahshour, also known as the Pyramids of Amnemhat III, which are situated in Dahshour, the southern royal necropolis of the ancient city of Memphis, 40 kilometers south of Cairo's downtown.

And finally, at the end of your day, you will get back to your hotel!

Day 3: the National museum of Egyptian Civilisation and islamic Cairo

On your third day, we will pick you up from your Cairo hotel and take you to the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization (NMEC), the first museum in the Middle East to concentrate on the history's first civilization. With its important theme and collections housed in Fustat, the museum offers tours of its various halls.

Following our visit to the National Museum, we will have lunch at a nearby restaurant before traveling to Islamic Cairo to see the Al-Refai and Sultan Hassan mosques. These two enormous structures in Citadel Square are regarded as outstanding examples of Mamluke engineering and architecture. We will tour their enormous prayer halls and learn more about Mamluke architecture. At the conclusion of your day tour, you will then head back to your hotel.

Day 4 : temple of Al-Karnak and Luxor

We will drive you to the airport in Cairo so you can catch your flight to Luxor, where you will meet your tour guide and head to the country's largest and most significant temple, Karnak, to explore its three main temples. After that, we'll visit the Luxor Museum, which is home to some priceless artifacts that chronicle the history and culture of ancient Egypt.

Finally, after a tiring day, our tour guide will drive you back to your Luxor hotel where they will complete the check-in process with you.

Day 5 : the Valley of the Queens and the Valley of the Kings

Day 5: We will pick you up from your Luxor hotel and take you to the Valley of the Queens and the Valley of the Kings (Wadi El Melouk Wal Malekat), where the 62 Pharaohs are buried, to learn about their royal tombs. The Colossi of Memnon and the Deir Bahary cache will be our next stops after we make our way to a nearby restaurant for lunch.

We will witness the remarkable assemblage of mummified corpses and funerary items belonging to over fifty monarchs, queens, and other members of the New Kingdom's royal lineage stored within the Deir. Two colossal statues depicting Amenhotep III (1386–1353 BCE) can also be found at Memnon, in addition to the Colossi.

Day 6 : Edfou and Komombo temples

The Edfou and Komombo temples will be the locations of your sixth day's activities. Probably the best-preserved temple in all of Egypt, Edfou Temple is located midway between Luxor and Aswan. This is where we will begin. Subsequently, the Kom Ombo temple served as a place of worship for two gods: Horus, the god of falcons, and Sobek, the god of coppers. Included in the majority of Aswan Day Tours.

The Temple of Kom Ombo is a must-see destination on all Egypt Nile Cruises. Although some extensions were added later, during the Roman era in Egypt, it was built during the Ptolemaic dynasty.

Day 7 : High Dam and the Nubian village in Aswan

We will travel to Aswan on the seventh day and spend the entire day at the city's most popular attractions, including the High Dam. One of the largest dams in the world and the Nubian Village, where you can explore the Nubian culture and learn more about its traditions, are just two of the things that make Aswan possible. Its average electricity generation can meet more than half of the nation's needs and allows for the development and distribution of electricity at low cost, even in the most remote regions.

Day 8 : back to Cairo

We will return you to Cairo on day eight. You'll have the day to yourself to explore Cairo and find whatever and wherever you choose!

Day 9: Fayoum day tour

After picking you up from your hotel in Cairo in the morning. Our certified tour guide will guide you through Fayoum's attractions. The Valley of the Whales (Wadi Al-Hitan), where you can find some whale fossils that are dating back some 40 million years. Then we will transfer to Wadi El-Rayan, where we will find El-Rayan falls, before returning again to your hotel in Cairo.

Day 10: Wahat Bahareiya And the white desert

El-Wahat Al-Bahareya and the fascinating white desert await us as we travel north from Cairo to the town of Farafra Oasis in the Western Desert region. We will return to the hotel in Cairo at the end of the day.

Day 11: back to Cairo

After we return to Cairo, you will have a free day to see and do as you please in Cairo or Giza.

Day 12: moving to Ain-Sokhna

You will be picked up from your hotel by a representative from Cairo Top Tours so that you can depart Cairo and go straight to the Stella Di Marry hotel in Sokhna. (or similar).

Day 13: snorkelling

On the thirteenth day, we will go snorkeling in the Red Sea near Sokhna to explore the amazing underwater world of Egypt!

Day 14: back to Cairo

Our tour guide will pick you up in the morning from the Stella Di Marre Sea Club hotel so you can return to Cairo and spend your final day of free time before departing Egypt.

Additionally, if you're interested, our Cairo Top Tours representative will present you with some optional tours!

Day 15 : the last day in Egypt

And on your last day in Egypt, our Cairo Top Tours tour leader will meet you for the last time at your hotel in Cairo to transfer you to Cairo airport to return to your homeland.
