Itinerario

Day 1 Arrival Cairo

Upon your arrival at Cairo airport, you will be greeted by one of our agents who will take you to the Giza Pyramids for the start of your day trip. Here.

You can explore the Pyramids and take in the stunning views before moving on to the Sphinx. Next, you will visit one of Egypt's largest Papyrus Institutes and stores, located near the Pyramids, where you can see how papyrus is made and choose from a wide selection of hand-painted papyrus sheets.

Afterward, you can enjoy an informative tour of Cairo that includes notable landmarks in Old Cairo, such as the Hanging Church, Ben Ezra Synagogue, Church of St. Barbara, and Church of Abu Serga.

Lunch will be provided at an Old Cairo restaurant. Finally, you will visit Khan el-Khalili, one of the oldest bazaars in the Middle East.

After the tour, you will be returned to your hotel for check-in and an overnight stay.

Day 2 - fly to luxor- Luxor Museum & Mummification Museum Tour

After breakfast, your tour guide will pick you up from your hotel and assist you with checking out before driving you to the airport for your flight from Cairo to Luxor. Upon arrival in Luxor, your guide will take you to your hotel to relax before the tour begins.

The first stop on the tour will be the Luxor Museum, which is the second most visited museum in Egypt after the Cairo Egyptian Museum. The museum houses a vast collection of artifacts from historically significant sites in the area, such as the Luxor and Karnak temples.

Next, you will visit the Mummification Museum, this museum provides information about the history and cultural significance of mummification in ancient Egyptian society. After this fascinating history lesson, your guide will transport you back to your hotel to relax.

Day3-Luxor West Bank

After breakfast, your tour guide will pick you up from your hotel to start the West Bank of Luxor day trip. The first stop will be the Valley of the Kings, which is the Necropolis of Thebes and a must-see for visitors to Luxor. This ancient necropolis houses tombs buried within Thebes Mountain, and your Egyptologist tour guide will suggest which three tombs to visit from various dynasties.

After visiting the tombs, you will be taken to the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, followed by a visit to the Colossi of Memnon, which are the two largest ancient statues in Egypt. A local restaurant will be the location for lunch before your return back to your hotel.

Day4- Day Trip to Edfu and Kom Ombo from Luxor

After breakfast, we will leave our hotel and visit the Temple of Kom Ombo, which dedicated to the crocodile god Sobek. Then, we will board a ship and sail towards Edfu to visit the Temple of Horus, dedicated to the falcon-headed god Horus. This temple is relatively new but well-preserved and very impressive. In the evening, we will take you to your Aswan hotel for check-in and overnight stay.

Day5- Aswan high dam and the Abu simbel temple

After breakfast, our tour guide will take you to visit the Aswan High Dam, which is an embankment dam built in Aswan, Egypt. It replaced the earlier Aswan Low Dam and has been very important in controlling flooding, providing water storage for irrigation, and producing hydroelectricity. After visiting the dam, we will have lunch at a local restaurant.

Then, we will take an air-conditioned van on a day trip to Abu Simbel from Aswan. These two temples are considered the most impressive examples of ancient Egyptian architecture and were built to honor four global gods.

The Temple of Queen Nefertari is also known as the Temple of Hathor and symbolically unites Ramesses II, Nefertari, Hathor, and the Sun God. After spending around three hours there, we will return to our Aswan hotel for an overnight stay.

Day6- Visit Philae Temple and fly to cairo

After breakfast, our tour guide will take you to see the Philae Temple, which is one of the most beautiful temple complexes in Egypt. To reach the ruins, you will need to take a water taxi to the island of Aglika, located just south of the old Aswan Dam. The temple was moved to its current location after the construction of the High Dam threatened to permanently flood it. During the careful reconstruction, the original design and layout of the complex were preserved, and the island was landscaped to reflect its original location. Philae Temple was a major center of worship for the goddess Isis during the Ptolemaic Dynasty.

After the tour, we will drop you off at the Aswan airport for your flight to Cairo. Upon arrival, we will transfer you to your Cairo hotel for check-in and overnight stay.

Day7- Bahariya Oasis safari Tour

Our tour of Bahariya Oasis will start with a transfer from Cairo to the Oasis, accompanied by our tour leader. You'll get to explore the old village, see the Black Mountains, and visit the salt lake. During the tour, you'll also explore the Mummies Hall, The Golden Mummies, and the Ain El Muftella temple. An English-speaking tour guide will be with you throughout the trip, and lunch will be provided. After the tour, we will take you back to your hotel in Cairo for the night.

Day 8- Alexandria Ancient Adventures

After breakfast, our tour guide will take you on a tour of Alexandria's Greco-Roman remains, where you'll learn about the city's classical history. You'll visit the Serapeum to see Pompey's Pillar, a red granite column, and explore the Catacombs of Kom el Shoqafa. Don't miss the nearby mosaics and the well-restored Roman amphitheater.

Next, we'll head to the waterfront for a seafood feast from the Mediterranean. Afterward, we'll visit the Citadel of Qaitbay, a 15th-century marine fort built on the site of the historic Lighthouse of Alexandria.

At the National Museum of Alexandria, you'll explore underwater archaeology exhibitions that take you back to the ancient world. Later, on a street food tour, you'll discover the diverse world of Egyptian cuisine, which draws inspiration from Ottoman and Arab traditions. You'll have the chance to try kebabs, mixed grills, meze dips, shellfish, and delicacies like koshary, a zesty mix of lentils, noodles, and sour tomato sauce. You can also try ice cream and sweet pastries. Finally, we'll drive you to your hotel in Alexandria for check-in and an overnight stay.

Day 9- Alexandria Modern Magic- Back Cairo

After breakfast and check-out, our tour guide will take you to visit the Great Library of Alexandria, which served as a center for study in the ancient world for many years. You'll start the day with a tour of the stunning new Library of Alexandria, which replaced the original one. Next, you'll visit a couple of Alexandria's most well-known mosques, such as the Nabi Daniel Mosque and the Abu al-Abbas al-Mursi Mosque.

Afterward, we'll take a ride down the corniche to the Montazah Palace Gardens and cross the Stanley Bridge. In the evening, we'll drive to Cairo, where we'll drop you off at your hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 10- Final Departure

After breakfast at your hotel, we will transfer you to Cairo Airport for your departure flight. We hope you had a wonderful time in Egypt and we look forward to welcoming you back again in the future.
