El- Alamein Day Trip from Alexandria

Start your visit here to get an overview of the battle and see artifacts, weapons, and uniforms from both Allied and Axis forces. Pay your respects at the German military cemetery, which is meticulously maintained and serves as a somber reminder of the war's toll.

Visit the Commonwealth War Graves Commission Cemetery, honoring soldiers from the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, and other Commonwealth nations who lost their lives in the North African campaign.

Stop at various memorials scattered across the landscape, including the Alamein Memorial, commemorating soldiers of different nationalities who fought in the desert campaign.

Enjoy a break for lunch at a local restaurant, offering a chance to savor Egyptian cuisine and recharge before continuing your exploration.
