Coptic and Islamic Cairo Day Tour

In the morning, your guide will greet you at your Cairo or Giza hotel for a comprehensive day tour of Cairo. Begin with a visit to the historic Citadel of Saladin, including the stunning Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, which has been a significant seat of power throughout Egypt's history.

Built by Salah Al-Din in the 12th century, the Citadel showcases Ottoman architecture, inspired by Istanbul's Blue Mosque. Next, explore the Islamic architectural marvels of Cairo, including the impressive Sultan Hassan Mosque and the ancient Ibn Tulun Mosque, one of Africa's oldest.

The tour then shifts to Coptic Cairo, where you'll explore the Roman-era Babylon Fortress, the Hanging Church situated atop its ruins, the Church of Abu Serga over the Holy Family's cavern, and the Ben Ezra Synagogue, one of Cairo's oldest.

Enjoy a flavorful lunch in Old Cairo before heading to Islamic Cairo's vibrant market, Khan El Khalili, for a spot of shopping. After a day of exploration, you'll be returned to your Cairo or Giza hotel. We hope you had a memorable experience on our personalized Cairo tour.
