Pharaonic Village Trip

A Cairo Top Tours representative will greet you in your hotel lobby in Cairo or Giza and escort you to a modern vehicle to begin your private day tour to the Pharaonic Village, located about 30 minutes from downtown Cairo on Al Bahr Al Aazam Street.

During your visit, you'll experience a fascinating simulation of daily life in ancient Egypt while aboard a boat. You'll observe various aspects of agriculture, including how the farmers prepared the land and tamed animals to assist with planting.

Discover how ancient Egyptians utilized papyrus reeds to craft boats and grapes to produce wine. The tour also covers mummification and other cultural practices, featuring actors dressed in pharaonic attire who illustrate ancient rituals, work, and cuisine. Additionally, you'll see a replica of King Tutankhamun's tomb, mirroring the one found in the Valley of the Kings.

After concluding your tour, you'll be transported back to your hotel. Don't forget to check out our new collection of Cairo day tours from the airport, perfect for enjoying a blend of Egypt excursions during a short transit stop in Cairo.
