The West Bank is the gateway to the Valley of the Kings, nestled amidst mountains where tombs are intricately carved into the rock beneath the hills. These tombs are adorned with captivating hieroglyphic decorations and ancient Egyptian mythological motifs, presenting a UNESCO World Heritage Site of unparalleled wonder.

Following this, we'll proceed to the renowned Hatshepsut Temple, also called El-Deir El-Bahari, constructed during the Eighteenth Dynasty in honour of Queen Hatshepsut and Amun-Re.
