Cairo Day Tour to the Cave Church and the Garbage City from Cairo Airport

Discover Egypt's fascinating history with our Cairo Day Tours to the Cave Church and Monastery of St. Simon the Tanner, as well as the Garbage City, starting from Cairo International Airport. This tour grants you access to one of Coptic Cairo's greatest rock-cut monasteries. The Church and Monastery of St. Simon, also known as the Cave Church, are nestled in the Al-Moqattam Hills southeast of Cairo, in an area known as 'Garbage City' due to its resident rubbish collectors.

Delve deeper into this experience with our Cairo Day Tours from the Airport during your Egypt trips. The history of Egypt is renowned for being one of the longest and most captivating in the world, characterized by a rich tapestry of influences from various countries and cultures throughout the millennia.

One of the most popular things to do in Egypt is to visit the famous Pyramids of Giza and the Great Sphinx. A long time ago, there was a king named Khufu who was very important during ancient Egyptian times.

Heliopolis is one of the neighbourhoods of Cairo, the capital of Egypt. Located south of Cairo, the Old City neighbourhood includes Coptic Cairo, Rawda Island, and others. It is one of the oldest neighbourhoods in Cairo, and Old Cairo was formerly known as "Ancient Egypt".
