Giza Pyramids Half-Day Tour from the Airport

Embark on an extraordinary journey with Cairo Top Tours as we guide you through the wonders of the Giza Pyramids. Join us for a half-day tour from the airport and discover the awe-inspiring beauty of this ancient site.

Giza Pyramids Stopover Tour

Experience an unforgettable adventure with the Giza Pyramids Stopover Tour, a highlight and one of the premier activities in Cairo, Egypt. This tour allows you to explore the iconic trio of pyramids at Giza: the grand pyramid built for King Khufu, the middle pyramid for King Khafre, and the smaller pyramid for King Menkaure. You'll also visit the Valley Temple, which overlooks the majestic Great Sphinx. For an added thrill, consider a camel ride around the pyramids, offering fantastic photo opportunities. These pyramids, originally constructed as tombs for pharaohs, housed mummies along with treasures and tools for the afterlife.

Regardless of your schedule, Cairo day tours from the airport are the perfect way to experience the finest treasures Cairo has to offer. The pyramids were predominantly built during the Age of the Pyramids, a period marked by the Fourth Dynasty of the Old Kingdom, which spanned from approximately 2613 BCE to 2494 BCE. King Khufu, a prominent figure of this era, is celebrated as the second ruler of the Fourth Dynasty.
