Cairo, Luxor

Experience a two-day journey that is not simply a promise to travel from Hurghada to Cairo and also Luxor but rather an exploration of Egyptian history that traverses the rocky and sandy desert of Egypt. In the beginning, you will enter Cairo and have the Pyramids of Giza and Great Sphinx accessible. On the coming day, you will travel to Luxor to see some remnants of the ancient civilization of Egypt.

Visit the hard-to-miss landmarks of Cairo, from the pyramids and ancient mosques to other cultural sites. The temples and tombs in Luxor alone, which come with thousands of years of history, are enough for an avid learner. This two-day trip package to Hurghada offers a great reprieve from the typical sightseeing tours, allowing one to see the sights that are popular in Egypt.

Also, as part of this tour, you will pay a visit to a small, interesting museum containing a scale model of the famous architectural monuments of Egypt. This is the place where you will enjoy a walk on El Moez Street, which is among the oldest streets populated by visuals from the Fatimid Era. However, this day is best suited as a conclusive part of your trip because the contrast that this area provides to the rest of Islamic Cairo is breathtaking.
