Monastery Tours from Sokhna Port

Constructed in the fourth century, the Zafarana Monastery is arguably one of the most fascinating and beautiful Christian structures in Egypt. Tours from Sokhna Port are very popular, as Ain Sokhna Port is a scenic coastal place that offers a calm respite from the normal hustle of life. With its developed infrastructure and modern amenities, the port eases the process of loading and unloading goods hence it has become a port for both marine industry and marine tourism. Many of them visit to see the beautiful design of the buildings and to learn more about the history of the monastery.

On top of that, the monasteries of Saint Antony and Saint Paul in Egypt are also famous as places of interest, which are situated in the Eastern Desert about a day away from Cairo. They are very important places for visitors in Egypt.

Both of the monasteries are open to tourists and provide a wonderful opportunity to see how the monks of Egypt live. In case you ever want to see how it is to live in a monastery, then you can spend the night in either of the monasteries.

Please don't skip the monastic journeys that have their starting point at Sokhna Port, for those for the calmness of the spirit that they offer, as they come back to the port in time for you to board your ship.

Monastery Day Trip from Sokhna Port

A representative will meet you at Sokhna Port. You will then be offered a suitable air-conditioned vehicle to Zafarana.

Zafarana is one of the towns of Christianity in Egypt with great historical significance, as there are many ancient churches and monasteries found there. To start with, we will visit the Oldest Monastery of Saint Anthony, which was endowed by St. Anthony of Egypt in the 4th century. Then, I will take you to the St. Paul Monastery, which was founded in 1856 by French monks.

I will try hard to keep your stomach intact; therefore, I will mention that there will be wonderful mouthwatering food in the finest restaurant in the place. The cuisine will be organic, focused on fresh ingredients, and the views from the site will be pleasant.

At the end of the tour, you will be returned to Sokhna Port.

Another outdoor adventure has kicked off in Egypt, particularly the monastery tour from Sokhna Port.
