Itinerary

Day 1-Arrival to Cairo.

Meet our tour guide at Cairo International Airport, who will take care of you. You will be driven to your hotel with the help of a personal, air-conditioned vehicle. There won't even be any charge for your accommodation that night, so you have the option to spend the night at the hotel depending on your arrival time. If your flight comes in early, or if you want to go on one of the excursions, just call us because we have many great tours for you.

Day 2 -Giza Pyramids , sphinx , and Egyptian Museum

The first segment of your day trip will begin post-breakfast as our guide fetches you from your hotel. The first stop in the day will include the Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus Pyramids. On the way to the Great Sphinx, the tour will also stop at the Valley Temple, which belongs to the Pyramids of Chephren.

We will stop by the museum to see the artworks that are some of the best from the paranoid era. There is much more impressive though in terms of the museum's collection from 5000 years ago, in addition to the items found in Tutankhamun's tomb for over 3500 years.

Day 3 - Memphis and Sakkara tour

After breakfast, your tour guide will escort you to the ancient cemetery of Memphis, namely Sakkara, for a thorough visit. You will begin with the Step Pyramid of Zoser- the oldest of all Egyptian pyramids. The tour will continue with the Pyramid of Teti, the tomb of Queen Nefertari, and the largest of all Sakkara's pyramids, the Red Pyramid. You will also see the Pyramids of Unas and Userkaf. However, the tombs and the pyramids of Sakkara are many and interesting enough to make this place worth another visit.

Day 4- Old Cairo Tour .

Breakfast will also mark the beginning of the day when a tour guide will pick you up from your hotel. The first destination will be the Salah El Din Citadel, which was built in 1183 AD by order of the great restoration for protecting Cairo from the Crusaders standing atop the mountains of Moqattam. After that, you will pay a visit to the so-called Mohamed Ali Alabaster Mosque, which was built in honor of the long-standing monarch of Egypt, Mohamed Ali.

Then you ride a horse-drawn gondola that glides through a very lively way of experiencing what Cairo can offer in its sights and sounds. Followed by moving into a walking tour, giving you room to explore the area at your pace and scintillating soak in the surroundings.

Day 5- Cairo by Night

Now relax today after your breakfast, you'll be cruising along the River Nile on a fa-llower including views of Cairo day or night, sunrise or sunset. One can begin shopping with an early-night excursion to Cairo on January 25 after the cruise.

There will also be time for Nile photography. Afterwards, one will walk through the Khan el-Khalili area visiting historic mosques such as El-Azhar and El-Hussien. Later the night we will return you to your hotel in Cairo.

Day 6 - Alexandria tour

This Alexandria day tour from Cairo will be preceded by a breakfast session at your hotel before the tour guide comes to pick you up for a trip of Alexandria. It is full of all kinds of attractions; all of this is sampled best traveling from Cairo. The first visit happens in the famous Library of Alexandria, an ancient 3rd century BC library, once the largest in the world, now on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

Next, you will explore the Citadel of Qaitbay. This 15th-century fortress is probably one of the most well-preserved fortresses in Egypt and offers fantastic city-sea photos to the Mediterranean.

Then we will continue towards Montaza Palace: built in 1892 as a summer place for the Khedive of Egypt, it is a public park with beautiful gardens, fountains, and a beach nowadays. After, you will go to one of the catacombs of Kom el-Shoqafa, ancient burial chambers dated from the II century a.d., very interesting for history lovers. Finally, a visit to Pompey's Pillar, which occurs to be one of the tallest Roman columns in Egypt with the whole importance of being a seal of Roman heritage in Alexandria, will conclude this tour.

This tour to Alexandria from Cairo will be one to remember, exposing visitors to some of the most renowned and emblematic sights in Egypt while educating them on the rich history of the city.

Day 7 - fly to luxor

After Breakfast, the Tour Guide will collect you from your hotel for your adventure to begin. We fly to the historical city Luxor, which owns the majestic tomb of King Tutankhamun. Upon arriving at Luxor, our guide will meet and transfer you to your hotel, the Steigenberger Nile Palace, where he'll settle you in for relaxation and enjoyment of your first night here in Luxor.

Day 8 - Luxor Hot balloon ride .

It would indeed be a perfect celebration of this eventful time in Luxor through a hot-air balloon ride just after breakfast. Soaring gently over the Valley of the Kings, the Valley of the Queens, and the Mountain of the Nobles, the flight lasts 30 to 45 minutes, depending on weather conditions.

Day 9- Embarkation - Luxor east bank tours.

Upon arrival in Luxor, our tour guide will welcome you and accompany you to your boat (Obelisk Aswan or a similar vessel, Royal Adventure or a similar option) in a private, air-conditioned vehicle. After lunch on board, we will commence our tour with a trip to the Karnak Temple, which was, at one point, among the largest religious structures globally, famous for its wonderful monuments, sculptures, and especially those created during the reign of Ramses II.

After exploring Karnak, we proceed to a few highlights of the Luxor Temple, where you will be able to admire two common historical treasures of Egypt for instance-the Colossi of Amenhotep III and the tomb of King Tutankhamun. After that, you will take back to your Nile cruise dinner and rest.

Day 10 - Luxor west bank tours

Following an excellent breakfast, we will take a visit to the Tombs of the Valley of the Kings in Luxor. This place is housing some of the best ancient tombs in Egypt. Then head to Deir El Bahari temple. On our way back to the boat, we will stop at the Colossi of Memnon, and at last return you to your Nile cruise.

Day 11- Edfu & Kom ombo Temples

You will be taken up from the Nile cruise after breakfast and brought to the Kom Ombo Temple: it is famous for being in close proximity to the village site, located about 40 kilometers north of Aswan. This temple was constructed during the Ptolemaic and also Roman periods (332 B.C.–395 A.D.) in honor of both the gods Sobek and Horus.

You are going back sailing to your Nile cruise boat where you can be left alone to unwind. And in the evening, you will attend a show of folk traditions in Egypt.

Day 12 - Aswan tour

In the morning after breakfast, visiting the High Dam will start with an unfinished obelisk tour as an end today's activity at the Temple of Philae, which we will reach using a small motorboat. Next, you will proceed back to your cruise ship to enjoy the dinner alongside a folklore show and spend the night onboard.

Day 13 -Abu Simbel temples.

After breakfast, we will proceed to the temples of Abu Simbel that are dedicated to Ramses II, Ra-Harakhty, Amun Ra and to Ptah, has four gigantic statues. The Second Temple of Temple Nefertari and the Goddess Hathor was also carved in the mountainside on the west bank of the Nile between 1274 and 1244 B.C. These two temples were disassembled, stone by stone, and shifted uphill. This has got to be one of the most impressive feats of UNESCO, preserving the temples of Abu Simbel. Returning guests to their cruise ship after visiting them will then get to spend the night onboard.

Day 14 - Aswan to Marsa Allam .

In the morning, our tour guide will pick you up in Marsa Alam, either by air-conditioned vehicle or by plane. Upon arrival at your hotel, the Hilton Nubia or a similar property, our guide will greet you, help you check in, and ensure you settle in comfortably before your evening excursion to Marsa Alam.

Day 15 - Free Day in Marsa Allam

We visit the city, and a guide will be here to kick off the day's tour with you. We went to see the mosque and the bazaar, where I got some souvenirs. We saw ancient sites in this city, and I was really amazed by the history and ruins here. After that, we will go local for lunch and bring you back to the hotel.

Day 16 - Free Day in Marsa Allam

As soon as we finish with breakfast, we will go on a boat trip where you can snorkel and see incredible underwater creatures. We also visit a nearby island, rich in even more interesting ruins than what you have seen in Mauritius until now. You will surely enjoy the boat ride. Then we will drop you off back at your hotel.

Day 17 - Free Day in Marsa Allam

After an early breakfast at your hotel, spend the day relaxing and taking in the stunning beauty of the Red Sea, while enjoying the charming atmosphere of the delightful city of Marsa Alam.

Day 18 - Free Day in Marsa Allam

Savor breakfast terms of your stay at the Marsa Alam hotel before embarking on further daily excursions in the area. Thereafter, spend some time relaxing and exploring according to your preference, or avail yourself of the city's day tours or excursions. Enjoy the night at your hotel in Marsa Alam.

Day 19 - Marsa Allam to Cairo .

Our tour guide will meet you at your hotel in Marsa Alam and transfer you to Cairo airport in a modern, air-conditioned vehicle or by plane to your hotel in Cairo, where you'll spend the day en route.

Day 20 - Departure and back home

Savour your breakfast on the final day of your Egypt tour before being transferred to Cairo International Airport for your journey home.
