Day 1: arrival in Cairo

Once you get to Cairo International Airport, an English-speaking representative will meet you, help you with the needed procedures, and take you to your hotel for a good night's sleep.

Day 2: visit the Giza pyramids and the Egyptian Museum

After your breakfast at your hotel, it is time to start your 5-Day Cairo, Alexandria, and Luxor Budget Package. You will visit the Egyptian Museum in the first stage. The museum in question contains the most ancient and also the largest collection of Egyptian artifacts ever made, dating back over 5000 years. Expect to see over 250000 real pieces in the exhibitions including but not limited to the fabled collection of King Tut treasures including jewels and gold from King Tut.

After visiting the museum, you will proceed to a nearby restaurant for lunch.

After this, you will continue with your excursion to the pyramids found in Giza and other notable pyramids including Giza's Wonder Pyramid of Cheops, the pyramids of Chephren, and Mykerinos where Cheops is considered the tallest building ever built.

Additionally, you will get an opportunity to view the infamous Great Sphinx up close, which is another expansive complex known for the statuesque body of a lion and the visage of a king, Chephren.

Finally, you shall be brought back to the hotel at the end of the day by the tour guide.

Day 3: Alexandria day tour to Alexandria Library and the Roman Amphitheatre

Day three of your affordable package tour to Cairo, Alexandria, and Luxor is breakfast at the hotel in Cairo before continuing with an amazing Alexandria tour, led by our tour guide. Excursion shall begin at the Alexandria Library, the site of the most famous libraries which was built to hold the Pharaoh's very first library and the birthplace of the Greco-Roman civilization.

After the tour, you will enjoy a delicious lunch at a restaurant that is close to the tourist site.

Then this tour will feature other attractions such as the Roman Amphitheater which is another wonderful structure dated back to the Greco-Roman period. Following that, tourists will be taken to Pompey's Pillar which was built in 292 AD.

The visitors will see the outer parts of the Citadel of Qaitbay which is one of the most important tourist attractions in the history of Alexandria.

Before returning to the hotel, there is usually transportation provided back to the city of Cairo after the end of the exciting day tour. After reaching the post, you will go to your hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 4: Day tour to Luxor Attraction by Air

Included in your Cairo, Alexandria, and Luxor Budget Package on the fourth day will be a packed breakfast in a box from the hotel. You will then be taken to Cairo Airport so that you can catch a flight to Luxor.

At Luxor Airport, upon clearing customs, you will be welcomed by our local guide who will embark you with an enthralling visiting experience of the Holy City of Thebes. For starters, the tour shall start with the Valley of the Kings, which is the royal cemetery for Theban kings and pharaohs of ancient Egypt.

Then, you will head on to Deir El Bahari for the Location of Hatshepsut Temple, which is unique for being built of rock from a cliff and considered as one of the prettiest temples in Egypt. After that, you will go to the site of the two statues of Memnon which were commissioned by King Amenhotep the third.

After a local lunch is provided, your excursion will then continue over the East Bank of Luxor and include the great Karnak Temple Complex, the biggest in the world, occupying one hundred acres of land. You will complete this wonderful visit to Luxor on an exhilarating note by going to the Luxor temple which was first constructed by one of the 12th dynasty kings but completed by the infamous king Ramses the Second.

At the end of the day, you will be taken back to Luxor Airport, from where you will catch a flight back to Cairo.
