Day 2: Giza Pyramids and the Egyptian Museum, Optional Cairo Nile Cruise Dinner

Start your day with breakfast at the hotel before meeting our Cairo Top Tours representative. An expert Egyptologist will then guide you on a fascinating tour of Cairo. Your first stop will be the Giza Plateau, where you'll explore the iconic pyramids of Cheops, Chephren, and Mycerinus, as well as the Great Sphinx, which dates back to the reign of King Chephren (2620 B.C.). You'll also visit the Valley Temple, which was used for the mummification of the king.

Afterwards, enjoy lunch at a high-quality restaurant before continuing with a visit to the Egyptian Museum. In addition to the many archaeological treasures, you'll see the priceless collection of King Tutankhamun, including a rare ivory statue of King Cheops, just 7 cm tall, and a granite statue of Queen Hatshepsut, among other artifacts spanning from the Paleolithic era to the Greco-Roman period.

At the end of your Cairo day tours, you'll be transferred back to your hotel. To round off your day, you'll have the chance to enjoy a delightful Nile cruise dinner in Cairo, complete with an enchanting Tanoura dance performance.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3: Fly to Luxor, West Bank Tours

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel before our representative assists you with the checkout process. You'll then be transferred to Cairo Airport for your flight to Luxor. Upon arrival at Luxor Airport, you'll receive assistance and start your exploration of Luxor's West Bank.

Your tour will begin at the Valley of the Kings, an ancient necropolis where the pharaohs and rulers of the New Kingdom were buried. Amidst the silence, desert, and sky, you'll have the chance to visit three royal tombs. Next, you'll continue your Luxor tour to the Temple of Hatshepsut, built by her devoted architect Senmout, and see the Colossi of Memnon. Your guide will explain the history of these massive statues and their original placement inside the temple of Amenhotep III.

Lunch will be served at a high-quality restaurant during your excursion. Afterward, you'll be transferred to your hotel in Luxor for the night.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 4: Luxor East Bank Tours

Start your day with breakfast at the hotel before embarking on your East Bank tour of Luxor. Your first stop will be Karnak Temple, a vast complex featuring temples, sacred lakes, obelisks, chapels, and avenues. Its grandeur made it a central religious site in ancient Egypt during the New Kingdom.

You'll then enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant while continuing your sightseeing in Luxor. Following lunch, visit Luxor Temple, dedicated to the god Amun, the chief deity in ancient Egyptian religion. This temple, located on the eastern bank of the Nile, was constructed by Amenhotep III during the eighteenth dynasty and later completed by the renowned Ramses II. It is linked to Karnak Temple by an avenue of sphinxes.

After your tour, you'll be transferred to Luxor Airport for your flight back to Cairo. Upon arrival at Cairo Airport, meet our representative and transfer to your hotel for an overnight stay.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5: Final Departure

After enjoying breakfast at the hotel, you'll meet our tour leader and be transferred by air-conditioned vehicle to the airport for your flight home. We hope you had a wonderful time on your 5-day Cairo and Luxor honeymoon itinerary, specially designed for an unforgettable romantic experience in Egypt.
