Day 2: Giza Pyramids Tour, Saqqara Necropolis, Memphis City

After enjoying your first breakfast at the hotel, our tour guide will meet you in the lobby to begin your Cairo day trip. You'll start with a fascinating tour of the Giza Pyramids, marveling at these colossal structures built during ancient Egypt's Old Kingdom by its renowned kings and rulers. These monuments stand as enduring testaments to the achievements made possible by the Nile River, which provided essential resources for the flourishing civilization that continues to intrigue historians to this day.

First, you'll visit the Great Pyramid of Cheops, constructed with nearly 2 million limestone blocks by King Khufu, inspired by his father's ambitious architectural legacy. Nearby, on the high plateau, you'll admire the Pyramids of Chephren, Khufu's son and successor, and Mycerinus, the smallest of the three.

You'll have the option to enjoy a camel ride around the pyramids before exploring the Great Sphinx of Giza, believed to be a representation of King Chephren himself within his mortuary complex. Inside the Valley Temple, you'll learn about the ancient Egyptian mummification rituals performed as part of the burial process.

Next, you'll visit Saqqara to see the Step Pyramid, a groundbreaking achievement in pyramid construction built by King Djoser of the Third Dynasty. This pyramid marked a significant advancement in royal burial practices with its six-tiered design and stone construction. You'll also have the opportunity to enter the pyramid of King Teti from the Sixth Dynasty and explore the tomb of Kagemni, a nobleman and vizier during King Teti's reign.

Continuing your Cairo tour, you'll visit the ancient city of Memphis, now known as Mit Rahina, where you'll discover an open-air museum showcasing artifacts such as the alabaster sphinx and a colossal statue of King Ramses II, whose mummy was unearthed in 1981.

After enjoying a delightful lunch at a restaurant with a view of the pyramids and Sphinx, you'll be transferred back to your hotel.

Day 3: Egypt Museum, Coptic and Islamic Cairo Tours

After enjoying breakfast at the hotel, you will meet your private tour guide in the lobby to begin your captivating tour of Cairo. Your first stop will be the Egyptian Museum, located in downtown Cairo, which has stood as a monument for over 120 years. Initially established by the Egyptian government to safeguard and display the country's ancient artifacts, the museum offers a comprehensive insight into Egypt's prosperous history. Your guide will provide detailed explanations of the exhibits, including the renowned treasures of King Tutankhamun.

Next, you'll visit the Citadel of Salah El Din and the Alabaster Mosque of Mohamed Ali, an impressive example of Ottoman architecture in Cairo. Modeled after Istanbul's Blue Mosque, the Citadel has been a pivotal site in Egyptian governance since its construction by Salah El Din up until King Farouk's reign in the 20th century.

After a leisurely lunch at an oriental restaurant, you'll explore Old Cairo's churches, beginning with the Roman fortress ruins of Babylon. The tour highlights include the Hanging Church, a significant landmark in Old Cairo, and the Church of St. Sergius, also known as the Cavern Church, believed to be built on the site where Jesus Christ and his mother sought refuge for nearly three months. Lastly, you'll visit the Ben Ezra Synagogue, originally a Christian church for many centuries before being converted into a Jewish temple.

Continuing your Cairo day tour, you'll delve into Islamic Cairo, renowned for its medieval monuments. You'll witness ancient walls, mosques like Al-Azhar Mosque, madrasas, sabils, and gates dating back to the Islamic era. Conclude your exploration with mint tea at Fishawy, the oldest café in Khan El Khalili, where you can admire the minarets of Al Hussein Mosque and Al Azhar Mosque, surrounded by the bustling atmosphere of one of Egypt's oldest markets.
