Day 2: Giza Pyramids, Saqqara Necropolis, Memphis City

After enjoying a hearty breakfast on your second day in Cairo, you will meet a certified English-speaking guide who will assist you in selecting the best city tours. Your day will begin with a visit to the Pyramids of Giza, where you can explore the impressive structures of King Cheops, Chephren, and Mycerinus from the plateau. You'll also have the option to take a camel ride around the Giza Pyramids, offering fantastic photo opportunities of the panoramic view.

Next, you'll visit the Valley Temple, where King Chephren's mummification process took place, passing by the third pyramid of King Mycerinus, before taking memorable photos near the Great Sphinx in Giza.

Your journey continues to the Saqqara necropolis to explore the Step Pyramid complex of King Djoser. You'll also visit well-preserved noble tombs and the tomb of Kagemni. Enjoy a delightful lunch at a high-quality restaurant before heading to the ancient capital of Egypt, Memphis. Here, you'll explore the open-air museum featuring the alabaster sphinx and statues of King Ramses II, along with artifacts spanning different eras of Pharaonic history. After concluding your tours of Saqqara and Memphis, you will return to your hotel in Cairo for overnight stay.

Day 3: Egyptian Museum, Coptic Cairo, Cairo Citadel, Khan El Khalili

Enjoy your breakfast buffet in the early morning before meeting your tour guide to begin your exciting Cairo journey.

First, immerse yourself in the Egyptian Museum tour, home to the most extensive collection of ancient Egyptian treasures, including artifacts discovered in Tutankhamun's tomb. Located near Tahrir Square, the museum spans two floors and offers a comprehensive exploration of Egyptian history over approximately two hours.

Next, embark on an enchanting Islamic Cairo tour within the Citadel, where you'll visit the impressive Mohamed Ali Mosque. Continuing with the Coptic tour, explore Old Cairo's area known for its Coptic churches, a hub for Egypt's largest Christian community. Wander through narrow alleys, stopping at various churches including St. Sergius, which houses a crypt where the holy family sought refuge.

Visit the Hanging Church, suspended between two towers of the Roman fortress of Babylon, and the historic Ben Ezra Synagogue. Afterward, enjoy a delightful lunch before heading to Khan El Khalili, Egypt's renowned bazaar. Stroll through its vibrant stalls filled with spices and colorful merchandise. Don't miss the opportunity to savor traditional mint tea or fresh mango juice at one of the area's oldest cafes. Finally, return to your hotel for overnight stay in Cairo.
