You'll also have the chance to enter the Valley Temple, where the mummification of the King was carried out as part of his burial rites. This is a fantastic opportunity to delve into ancient Egyptian culture and history.

To continue your exploration, head to Memphis, the ancient capital of Egypt, and visit the open-air museum to see the second-largest alabaster sphinx and the colossal statue of King Ramses II, one of the most formidable rulers of the New Kingdom.

For a glimpse of some of Egypt's most iconic pyramids, transfer to the Dahshur archaeological site to view the Bent Pyramid and the Red Pyramid.
